Westover and Harrington will be greeted with hearty handshakes this fall upon their success at reelection.

There are too many men in our party that have to be carried along as dead weight. Too many who not only have no enthusiasm for success but have grown sour, disgruntled, apathetic and lethargic. If they have no good to say for the party they can do but little good. Let every one remember that our principles are right and we should never tire of expressing them to others who may need encouragement instead of disparaging words. If we cannot win this year we will some time. Courage to do or keep trying should pervade every mind until our enemies fall before us. Our party is right but we lack organization, enthusiasm and interest in getting out our voters. Then instead of allowing others to work us for their friends, we should get out and work for our friends and the party.

EMMA CARLSON, Teacher.

The report books for the two months of school were given out this week.

A number of pupils attended the party at Mr. Groves' ranch last Friday night.

A class is taught in each room after four o'clock. It is necessary in order to give more recitation time.

The daily weather maps sent by the bureau at Omaha are very interesting to the Physical Geography class.

At the next society meeting the eighth grade class will discuss the question, "Resolved: That women should vote."

Wood Lake Notes.

Mrs. Kincaid made a trip to Valentine this week.

Mrs. Swan, who has been sick for some time, is very low.

John West came down from Valentine Wednesday morning on a visit to his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Johnson returned home from a trip to Fairfax, S. D., Tuesday morning.

Mr. Tillson and daughter Annie were in Woodlake Sunday. Miss Anna was on her way out to her school in the Groves' district.

The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. Whillans last Saturday, and will be held at the home of Mrs. Vincent at three o'clock in the afternoon Nov. 21. Everybody invited.

Rev. Cumbow will preach in the church Sunday evening, Nov. 15. Sunday school Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. A Loyal Temperance Legion for the young people will be organized here soon.

Mrs. Anna M. Palmer, of Des Moines, Iowa, was here two days and gave us some interesting talks in the afternoon and evenings of each day and her lectures were much appreciated. She has been on a tour to the Pacific coast, and has been lecturing since last May. These were the last meetings she held before returning to her home.

About forty of the friends of Mrs. E. L. Davis met at the home of Mrs. J. W. Whillans at three o'clock Tuesday afternoon, and gave her a farewell reception. At the appointed time two of the ladies went to her home and persuaded her to put her wraps on and come down town with them, and asked her to go to Mr. Whillans' house, where she was agreeably surprised. Refreshments were served and before the guests went home a fine table cloth and two nice handkerchiefs were presented to her as souvenirs from her Woodlake friends. Mr. and Mrs. Davis and family started for New York Saturday morning and the many friends they have left behind wish them a pleasant trip and an enjoyable time among their old friends in New York. They will be greatly missed here.
