Married.

Hooker-Day-On April 24, 1904, by Rev. A. F. Cumbow, Harry Hooker and Miss Maud Day.

The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's parents in Woodlake, Nebr., at four o'clock Sunday afternoon, in the presence of relatives of both bride and groom. The groom's father, mother, sister and nephew, from Chadron, were present.

The bride was attired in a lovely gown of a pale lavender colored silk. The groom wore the conventional suit of black.

Immediately after the ceremony the guests sat down to a bountiful supper. The table was loaded pared by the bride were especially attractive and delicious. The beautiful gifts from relatives and friends were too numerous to mention, many being sent from a distance.

The groom resides on a fine ranch near town. The happy couple started out that evening, amid a shower of old shoes, to the elegantly furnished home awaiting them.

Both bride and groom are well and favorably known in and around Woodlake and have many friends who join in congratulations and best wishes for "Harry and Maud." -Contributed.

M. J. Jordan has been buying hay lately. It is a good thing for there has been very slow sale at low prices, but this gives an opportunity for some of the ranchmen who find that they have a few tons of hay left over.

Last Saturday night a crowd of the neighbors pleasantly surprised Barney Denayer and family at their home near Arabia, bringing with them a most bountiful supper, consisting of cookies, doughnuts, devils food, angel cake, mince pie, apple pie, duck, chicken, coffee and so many other delicacies that it makes our teeth water to think of them. Barney accept our thanks for a very cordial reception and a good time.
