John Jackson was in town Tuesday.

Joe McCloud came in Tuesday on business.

C. M. Sagesser is visiting in town this week.

Mike Jordon, of Arabia, was in town Saturday.

Clinton Collett was visiting at home Saturday last.

Frank and Billy Ballard spent last Friday in town.

Jim Hudson was up from Sparks the first of the week.

Chas. Reiter came down from Rosebud last Sunday.

A steel roof was put on the bowling alley this week.

Floyd Heady was down from White river Monday.

John Green was in town Saturday doing some trading.

Charley Shepard left for Deadwood last Sunday night.

Miss Mary Kief, of Arabia, was visiting in town Saturday.

Hon. Frank Rothleutner was down from Georgia Saturday.

Mrs. Rounds was visiting in town the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Walker returned Friday morning from a visit up the road.

Wm. Piercy, of Kennedy, was in yesterday after a load of freight.

F. H. Baumgartl, of Crooks ton, was a Valentine visitor last Saturday.

Woodruff Ball has been suffering from an ulcerated tooth this week.

John Bullis returned from a few days recreation on his claim, last Friday.

Tom Spratt and Ben Hobson were north table visitors in town last Friday.

Ralph Crabb, Will Cramer and Matt House were in from the north table Saturday.

Wm. Steadman was in the city Tuesday visiting his son, Robert, who recently had his arm broke.

Quite a number of delegates were in town last Saturday attending the democratic convention.

A picnic was held on the Minnehaduda last Sunday by the Hilsinger family. All report a good time.

E. C. Cole, of Cody, was in town Monday on official business connected with his office as county assessor.

The first commencement of the Woodlake school will take place tomorrow night. There are four graduates this year.

F. H. Young called at this office Saturday while in town to extend congratulations to I. M. Rice on his recent marriage.

D. A. Hancock and brother Larkin were in town last Saturday. The former left for the East on Sunday morning's train.

N. B. Swietzer came in last Saturday to visit his family. He was accompanied by his assistant, an eastern man by the name of Teller.

Frank Cain returned from Des Moines, Iowa yesterday morning where he was called on account of the serious illness of his mother. At the time he left she was rapidly improving.

I. M. Jones, accompanied by his two boys, was in town last week. They are working on the new building being put up at St. Francis Mission.

W. S. Barker went to St. Louis the first of the week to take in the exposition. Nearly all the editors in Nebraska are there, as they had an excursion trip.

Rev. Edgar Clark, pastor of the Presbyterian church of this city, left last Monday morning for Buffalo, New York, where he will attend the annual general assembly of the Presbyterian church.

General Theo. Wint, commander of the Department of the Missouri, inspected Fort Niobrara last Sunday and Monday. Extensive drills were held, which were witnessed by many townspeople.

We learn with pleasure that the South Dakota delegation in Congress was unable to hurt Agent McChesney. They carried their grievances to the President who immediately turned them down.

Wm. Heelan called at this office while in town Saturday to pay a year's subscription in advance. Mr. Heelan is one of the prosperous stockmen of Cherry county and reports everything looking fine this year.

Woodruff Ball has received his new buckboard which he recently ordered through W. B. Hammond. The buckboard was made to order and is a dandy. It has wide tires and the wheels are fitted with ball bearings.

Dr. E. S. Furay left for Cody yesterday morning where he will engage in his profession. While here Dr. Furay was a perfect gentleman and an excellent surgeon. We feel sure that he will do well in Cody and we wish him success.

Mrs. John G. Stetter returned from Lincoln, Saturday night, where she has been nursing her daughter, Miss Leta, back to health. The friends of Miss Leta will be glad to know that she has entirely recovered from her recent illness.

A new band has been organized under the leadership of Joseph Belisle. With such a capable leader the band will undoubtedly play some good music. What the town needs is a good band and we think that at last, one has been organized which will stay together.

Died, Saturday, May 14, 1904, at Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Barling, mother of Mrs. John G. Stetter and Mrs. Plumley of this city. Mrs. Plumley immediately left on the next train for Chicago. THE DEMOCRAT joins in the sympathy of the community for the relatives in their sad bereavement.

W. S. Jackson and wife departed yesterday morning for St. Louis, where they will take in the exposition for a couple of weeks. From there they will go to Iowa and Illinois where they will visit relatives. Mr. Jackson will return in about a month, but Mrs. Jackson will probably remain all last summer.

Last Sunday evening the baccalaureate sermon was given in the M. E. church by Rev. Edgar Clark. There are eight graduates this year: Misses Elizabeth J. Hobson, Estella F. Spratt, Nellie J. Collett, Nellie F. Easley, Lema I. McCrea, Messrs Floyd M. Pettycrew, Alfred Lewis and James C. Quigley. The sermon was excellent and much credit is due Mr. Clark for the way in which it was rendered. The annual commencement will be held tomorrow night in the M. E. church.
