Some of the wildest people in town are those you see with great pretentions of being orderly. The booming of cannon crackers and shooting blank shells in revolvers previous to and the night after the Fourth of July were not celebrating the 4th of July. It shows only a desire to be boisterous and noisy upon any excuse.

Terry's Uncle Tom's Cabin tent show had a big crowd on Monday evening. The public never expects very much from an Uncle Tom's Cabin show, but it in entitled to something for its money. A poor play and worse actors was what it saw at Terry's. Not one redeeming feature in the whole show.-Ainsworth Star-Journal.

show came and went. A big crowd went out to greet them on a rainy night, though this is only common at Valentine. They'll go to see anything and pay better prices than are charged elsewhere. What is said in the Ainsworth paper is true and perhaps several reasons might be given why this is generally so. It is an old play that had its star performers in its time, but every feature that could be enlarged upon has been used in Uncle Tom's Cabin until talent and genius has been worn threadbare and only the ridiculous and silly imitations, distorting extremes, having neither enlightenemnt nor purpose, can be offered, with now and then a departure from the former high class play and degenerating into a lewd and ludicrous stage performance of the lower type and called special features.

said that the supreme court refused to concur or join with the other state officers in recommending a pardon. The chief justice gave as his reason, that the act, under which the governor was about to act, was unconstitutional because it attempts to deprive the governor of power to pardon or to limit his power in that direction, by requiring the approval of other state officers, including officers of night, one on the charge of assault a department other than the ex- and battery and the rest on the cutive.
