

THE VALENTINE DEMOCRAT.

VOLUME XIX

VALENTINE, NEBRASKA, OCTOBER 27, 1904.

NUMBER 41

Heating Stoves...

Are you going to want a Heating Stove this winter? If you are, you want the best—the best in appearance—the best in quality and—the best in results. If you want one that will give you the best results for all kinds of fuel, you want one of the following lines:

- Cole's Original Hot Blast,
- Peninsular Parlor Heater and Double Heating Base Burners,
- The XXth Century Laurel,
- The Retort Jewel.

We have the exclusive agency of the above lines, which include the best stoves made. Make us a call before buying elsewhere and we will gladly explain to you all the special features of the different stoves. We guarantee every stove mentioned to be perfectly satisfactory in every way or we will exchange it or refund money paid us.

We carry the largest and most complete line of stoves of all kinds found in Northwest Nebraska.

Call and Inspect these stoves.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Lawrence Rice is sick this week with the measles.

Dan Truax, of Cody, was in our city last Friday on business.

J. N. Steadman, of Osis, was a visitor to our city last Friday.

R. F. Gillaspie spent a couple of days in town the past week.

Ed Richards, of Kennedy, was in town yesterday for a load of coal.

Edward Lewis, foreman of the Treadway ranch, was in the city Tuesday.

Miss Nellie Easley assisted in Geo. Hornaby's store a few days last week.

Hon. Frank Rothleutner and Mr. Wilson, of Georgia, was in the city Monday on business.

O. W. Morey is re-arranging his store, putting additional shelving to display holiday goods.

Mr. Elliott and J. W. Stetter shipped a car load of Wisconsin apples in the first of the week.

P. H. Young, of Simeon, was in town yesterday, looking as bright and cheerful as health makes a man.

Mrs. McDonald made a business trip to Neligh Sunday, returning on the freight Monday to Crookston.

Rev. Carpenter went down to his homestead south of Johnstown Monday to make some improvements.

Mrs. J. P. Rothe, of Ft. Niobrara, called yesterday to pay for a year's subscription to THE DEMOCRAT.

Born, Tuesday morning, to R. B. Thompson and wife of Simeon, a girl. This report came over the telephone.

D. J. Drebert and I. M. Rice made a business trip to Crookston and Georgia, Friday and Saturday of last week.

Thos. Huntington, of Gordon, was down last Thursday with eleven old soldiers who were filing on land in the western part of this county.

The Geo. L. Loomis meeting, to have been held here Wednesday, Nov. 2nd, is cancelled. We are sorry to announce this and take up the bills.

Edward Ormesher was in town Tuesday and handed the Editor a dollar for THE DEMOCRAT which goes to his daughter, Mrs. Clark, of Englewood, S. D.

D. J. Drebert spent several days the past week in our city with I. M. Rice, the local agent, in the interest of the German Mutual Fire Insurance Co.

An eleven pound girl was born to W. H. Caton and wife Monday evening, Oct. 24, 1904, at the home of Mrs. Caton's parents, Judge Towne and wife of this city.

John Hornick, of the firm Hornick, Hess & More, was in the city last Friday. He is an old friend of Frank Fischer's, they having been acquainted for over 20 years.

Grant Boyer, of the firm of Taylor & Boyer, carpenters and contractors, went out to J. C. McNair's place Tuesday afternoon to raise the roof of his house and make it a two story.

Cast your vote for Wm. Butler of Irwin precinct for county commissioner. Mr. Butler is a man of mature years and of good judgment. He is a popular man at home and ought to get a good vote everywhere in the county. Men who know him say he is the man to elect this year.

Julius Schromm, of Arabia, called on us last Thursday while in town and says he has purchased Mr. Stinard's horses which are young work horses mostly from 1 to 6 years old. Mr. Schromm offers to trade them for young mules or cattle.

A telegram Sunday morning from Buchanan, Mich., announced the serious illness of Jos. Sparks, the father of the Sparks brothers in this city. Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Sparks hastily made preparations and started Tuesday morning for Buchanan.

John West, who for the past few months has been employed in the capacity of clerk in the Heme Bakery, has resigned his position and is night clerk at the Chicago House. Later—Mr. West has accepted a position on the road, representing and insurance company.

S. J. Blakely and Miss Rita Thompson were married by Judge Towne yesterday morning. Mr. Blakely is a trusted foreman of the Diamond Bar ranch at Simeon and Miss Thompson is a daughter of C. C. Thompson on the river. THE DEMOCRAT wishes them success and happiness.

A. E. Barnes, of Newton, the father of Dan, E. R. and the Cody hardware merchant, was in our city last Friday on real estate business. Mr. Barnes subscribed for THE DEMOCRAT so that he could have the county news. He is one of Cherry county's true Democrats who believes that the principles of our party are right and always uphold them.

W. J. Bryan is making a tour of West Va. in Senator Davis' private car, speaking to the largest audiences that ever came out to hear a citizen speak. Upon his concluding his first speech at Senator Davis' home town, the old man arose, faced the audience and with a wave of his hand said, "No man can speak after Mr. Bryan," and dismissed the audience amid cheers.

On Thursday evening at eight o'clock, at the home prepared by the groom, Rev. Clark of the Presbyterian church, joined in marriage Clarence Sageser of this city and Miss Chambers, of Broken Bow, Neb., in the presence of relatives and a few invited guests. Mr. Sageser is a well known young business man of Valentine, while his bride who is a stranger here, is welcomed in our town. THE DEMOCRAT extends congratulations.

Al Thacher was up from the Post hospital yesterday a few hours. He has had a long siege with carbuncles and is about to triumph, though he'll have the scars of a veteran. A large carbuncle was cut from the back of his neck and it takes time for this to heal. Mr. Thacher was in town week ago yesterday, since which time a large piece of skin was taken from his leg and grafted onto his neck. He was looking cheerful yesterday and it was a pleasure to see him again on our streets.

O. C. Treadway, of the Chi Psi Cattle company, called on us Tuesday while in town to discuss the political situation. Mr. Treadway is a strong admirer of W. J. Bryan and at the beginning of the campaign was opposed to the candidacy of Judge Parker for president but thinks now that it is a matter of supporting either Parker or Roosevelt and prefers the former. Mr. Bryan says that where there's a difference in the two candidates, Parker is on the right side, and most of our Democrats will bear this in mind.
