Capt. A. G. Shaw is putting out some fine photo calendars this week.

Miss Laura Pettijohn is enjoying a few days visit with friends in Fremont.

Burgess Hartigan and brother went to Hastings, Nebr., Tuesday, returning Saturday.

Leonard Lparks returned to Orchard Lake, Mich., Military Academy this morning.

Mrs. R. A. McQuade and her brother, Joe Bachelor, have gone to Iowa to visit a sister.

Fred Cumbow spent Christmas with his parents, 30 miles south of Valentine, returning Friday.

Bert Jeffers departed for Omaha yesterday morning after a two weeks vacation spent at home.

Born to E. M. Jeffers and wife, Dec. 22, 1904, a baby boy. This item was overlooked last week.

Miss Myrtle Pettijohn has accepted a position in Lincoln as stenographer for Auditor-elect Searle.

Miss Myrtle Holcomb has been in charge of Mrs. Elmore's store during her absence at Gordon on business.

Wesley Holsclaw came up from Longpine to spend Christmas at home, returning the next day to Ainsworth.

Mrs. Gertrude Brown, of Anselmo, Nebr., came up yesterday morning to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Moon.

A dance was given by the employees of the Fort New Year's night. Several people went down from Valentine and a nice time is reported.

Sheriff Layport took two prisoners, an Indian and a negro to the penitentiary, and J. J. Bothwell to the insane asylum Friday morning before Xmas.

I. M. Rice and wife and Lawrence returned Sunday morning from York, where they have been the past week visiting at the home of Mrs. Rice's parents.

Mrs. Catherine J. Callen was down from Rosebud Agency last week visiting friends and returned, having accepted a position as teacher at Lower Cut Meat school.

Miss Inez Pettycrew, Clinton Collett and George Hornby returned to Lincoln Monday morning, after spending a two weeks vacation at the parental home.

Mrs. Read, of Gordon, who has been in Valentine the past few days the guest of Mrs. Elmore, returned home Wednesday morning, accompanied by Mrs. Elmore.

Prof. Watson, Misses Brown, Stinard, Carlson and Pettijohn went down to Omaha Tuesday morning to attend the State Teachers association, returning Sunday morning.

Frank Grooms returned from Holt county, Mo., last night, where he has been visiting the past six weeks. A cousin of Mr. Grooms, a Mr. Gleason of Craig, Mo., accompanied him home for a short visit with relatives and to see the country.

We wish our readers a prosperous New Year. Our special offer brought a number of subscribers and gave several a chance to earn a little Christmas money. The offer extended only to Jan. 1, '05.

P. Belgard, formerly of Rosebud, writes us from Galva, Iowa, that he gets THE DEMOCRAT every week, and encloses a dollar with New Year greetings to the editor and his numerous friends here and at Rosebud.

Geo. D. Huggins drove up from his ranch near Norden the first of the week and spent a couple of days in town, combining business with pleasure. Mr. Huggins handed us a dollar for advance subscription to THE DEMOCRAT.

The Ladies Aid society of the M. E. church will give a mixed program, consisting of music, drills, recitations, etc., on the evening of George Washington's birthday, Feb. 22. Further announcement will be made later.

Andrew Schatzthauer, of Wood Lake, and Detective McCoy called at our office yesterday on business and to chat with the editor. Mr. Schatzthauer has a lot of hay to sell which he will sell cheap f. o. b. cars at Woodlake for contract hay.

The M. E. choir is practicing for an entertainment to be given a week from next Wednesday evening. Count it up and see what day of the month it will be and make preparations to come. There will be some good singing and you don't want to miss a concert that Prof. Beatty directs.

Harold Zieman writes us from Keams Canyon, Ariz., that he was transferred to Grand Junction, Colo., and that he and his wife started for that place last Friday. The superintendent at Keams Canyon goes up to Grand Junction and Mr. Zieman was asked to go with him. Dick sends us best regards and greetings to his friends.

Chas. Gould met with quite a serious accident Monday morning which may cause him to lose the end of his thumb. While standing near the new engine at the mill he slipped, and, in trying to save himself from falling, threw out his hands, the left one striking the engine. The thumb was caught in the gearing and almost severed at the first joint from the hand. Dr. Compton has hopes of saving the injured member and Charles is around with his hand in a sling.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall, of the Chicago hotel, entertained at a New Year's dinner the following guests who enjoyed a dinner such as only Mr. Hall knows how to serve:

Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cornell, Judge and Mrs. Walcott, Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Rice, Miss Orah Britton, A. M.
