TALK OF THE TOWN

Frank Kludiskofsky was down from Georgia Friday.

Nels Rowley and Joe Jennett were up from Kennedy Friday.

The Halldorson Bros. came up last Monday to open their new gallery here.

Miss Myrtle Pettijohn came home from Lincoln last Friday for a few days visit with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Randall spent Sunday in Woodlake visiting Mr. Randall's parents.

J. F. Swain was in town the latter part of last week and went out in the country south around Oasis Saturday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Harve Shepard, Wednesday night, April 26, 1905, a fine baby boy. Harve says he's a dandy.

John Britt and Henry Sanner, each hauled in a load of hogs to market last Friday. We credit each with another year's subscription in advance.

Judge Westover was in town Monday to appoint a receiver for the Erickson Cattle Co. and transact other legal matters at a special session of court.

Mrs. Smith and son arrived from Ainsworth last Saturday to occupy the Dave Peters' house that Mr. Smith had rented and furnished for house-keeping.

At the special commencement exercises of the state university school of agriculture at Memorial hall, April 29, Earl Pettyerew, of our town, was one of the graduates.

J. W. Ward has moved to Britt and rented his home opposite the Catholic church to S. A. Lee, the barber who has recently been running the Perry Lawson barber shop.

Wm. Grooms took his brother Chester to Omaha last Saturday to be operated on for gall stones in the liver which have occasioned several sharp attacks the past year.

J. C. Dahlman was in the city Tuesday visiting old time friends, while stopping over a day enroute to Rosebud where he goes in the interest of his delivery of beef cattle.

Frank Sageser spent several days in town the past week and went up to Gordon from here for a couple of days visit, returning yesterday and this morning returned to Chambers, Nebr.

The two young men who came from Denmark last summer, one working for Gus. Carlson and the other for Jens Thompson and recently for Henry Flinaux, started for Oakland, Calif., last week.

John Porath was in town Saturday and tells us he has recently completed a well 318 feet deep for F. Porath, also one for Mr. Emery south of Crookston and a 3 inch casing well for Jacob Sauerwein.

Max E. Viertel came down from Crookston Monday, and Tuesday morning departed on his way to the state meeting of the M. W. A. at Columbus. Mr. Viertel has been a Woodman 14 years and is a worthy representative of the order.

Lawrence Christensen, whose family is living in the John Harden house, came in yesterday and subscribed for THE DEMOCRAT. He lately moved out here from Crawford county, Iowa, and filed on a section of land 7 miles south-west of town.

P. S. Roueche, of Brownlee, called on us yesterday morning while in town on a business deal. We always enjoy a visit with Mr. Roueche. He is honest and square in his dealings and his neighbors all speak well of him. Mr. Roueche wants to sell his ranch at Brownlee, and it is one of the finest in the county. Plenty of hay, well watered and an abundance of pasture

Mrs. C. Callen is in the city.

A. L. Gillaspie was in town Tuesday.

Geo. W. Keller, of Cascade, was in town Monday.

Chas. McCoy came in last week from his homestead.

Mrs. B. R. Webb came up from Lincoln yesterday morning and is visiting friends in the city.

G. Hartigan returned Sunday from a two weeks visit at P. H. Young's ranch near Simeon.

Mrs. R. Andersen came down from Rosebud last Thursday and is visiting friends in the city.

Shepard Bros. have bought Harry Hilsinger's interest in the pool hall and Jas. Shepard is in charge.

Wm. Caton was in the city last Friday, enroute to Rosebud where he is temporarily in charge of the White Thunder school.

Mrs. W. R. Towne is expected home Saturday from a couple of weeks visit with her daughter, Mrs. Caton, on the reservation. Meanwhile the Judge has been lonesome.

Last week "Dad" Hershey made the city a present of a bell that was brought from Cuba and was one of a number of chimes in a cathedral. The bell will now do service as a fire alarm for the city.

M. C. Lambert, of Norfolk, has been employed by the Home Bakery since May 1st, in place of Frank Fordney, the old baker who has been a faithful man and succeeded in pleasing every patron who used bread.

A patent to the 720 acres east and adjoining the city has been received, conveying that tract of land to the city of Valentine, and the same has been placed on record at the court house. The town board has ordered signs painted which will be posted conspicuously to prevent destruction or removal of the timber therefrom.

The Junior League social given last Friday evening at the home of George Hornby was a success socially and financially. The rooms were tastily decorated, representing in one room China, another, Japan and another California, in each of which refreshments were served in keeping with the country. Miss Sarah Simpson wore a silk Japanese gown from Japan in presiding over the Japanese tea urn. The art gallery upstairs furnished amusement for the curious, and the rummage sale was well patronized. Music was furnished by Mrs. Walter Jackson, Misses Holcomb and Elliott, Rev. Clark and Mr. McClean.

From the Jeffersonville, (Ind.) Evening News we learn of the marriage there of R. S. Dennis, formerly of this city, to Mrs. Evelyn Perry, last Saturday night. A year ago last January Dennis left Valentine to enter the government employ as a painter and was sent to Jeffersonville, Ind., where he has since remained. He left his wife and child, a little girl then five years old, here and promised to send for them as soon as he could, which he never done. Once, last December, he sent $5 to his wife and told her that was all the money he had and which is all she received from him since he left. Dennis was married at Gloucester, Mass., in 1889, and while a soldier in the 12th infantry, stationed at Ft. Niobrara, was married to Miss Emma Downing, Sept. 23, 1897, whom he left here to work for her living and support their child, while he spent his earnings recklessly. Mrs. Emma Dennis is a respectable woman, of good appearance and deserving of better treatment than she received at the hands of Dennis, even while he lived with her. Mrs. Dennis secured a divorce March 20, 1905 and was awarded $360 alimony, which however she has never received.

BASE BALL TEAMS ORGANIZE

Valentine, Crookston and Harmony Organize for Season of 1905.

Valentine has organized a base ball team for 1905 with Byron Shaw as manager and Frank Fischer, Jr., assistant manager, Ote Gorrell, captain; W. A. Kimbell, assistant captain; R. H. Robertson, sec'y., and Jake Tobien, treas. Maynard Bishop, A. C. Salmon, Geo. Hunter, C. Burnell, and W. C. E. Smith will assist the above officers, which together with their pitcher, whose name we haven't learned, will make a strong team.

Charles Brown, Frank West, Wm. Haley and Wm. Gibson are substitutes and are pretty fair players, though young.

Crookston has organized a base ball team for the coming season with Wm. Kelly as captain and expect to play Valentine at intervals.

Harmony has organized a base ball team with Dave Fowler as captain and will play some hot games with Crookston and the Valentine teams.

Stays Sentence of Crites.

Lincoln, May 2.—Chief Justice S. A. Holcomb has granted a stay of execution to Judge A. W. Crites of Chadron, receiver of the United States land office under Cleveland, who was sent to jail Friday by District Judge Harrington for contempt of court. The bond was fixed at $200. Crites, as counsel for Benjamin Pitman, asked questions of him while on the witness stand in defiance of the order of Harrington, who fined him $10 for contempt and remanded him to jail until the refractory attorney would agree to pay. Judge Holcomb telegraphed the stay to Chadron, where Crites was in jail.—Norfolk Daily News.

Daniel McKenney.

Did ye ever hear tell of old Daniel McKenney The man with the razor in Sageser's shop? A dale of a talker and josher was Denny And stayed with his glass till he drank the last drop.

A right clever man was this Daniel McKenney; He'd traveled through quite a large bit of the world; For the drawin' of pictures off hand there warn't any Could bate him or kape near's a stone that is hurl'd.

Old Dan was a sportsman for hunting wild game; The boys are all ears as they sit on the rail To hear his wild stories of "ambush" and "fame," How he'd trail any jack as had salt on his tail.

Now, Mac was a knight of the razor, was he, For the scrapin' of faces Mac surely was right; His welcome so hearty, his speech full and free, No wonder we missed him last Saturday night.

For feed or livery call on the Eagle Livery. Commercial trade a specialty. We have some good second hand buggies and harness for sale. Call and see us.

14 SHEPARD BROS., Prop.

Last Friday was a nice day and O. W. Hahn, W. H. Hooper, John Granger, John Ryschon, Jr., John Britt and H. C. Sanner, of north table, and Andrew Benson, of Arabia, were in town. It always makes us feel like our town has company when so many good men get together here.

Superstitious Parnell.

Miss Charlotte McCarthy, daughter of Justin McCarthy, told a curious story of Charles Stewart Parnell. "One evening," says she, "Parnell was talking to me at the coffee stage of dinner, and I, gazing at him with rapture, was vaguely stirring mine and going to drink it when he said: 'You must not drink that. You have stirred it the wrong way, and it would be unlucky. Get another cup.' What struck me as strange in this was not his being superstitious—every one who knew him at all knew that—but his extraordinary power of observation."
