With Marquis Ito, it is believed, will come one of the great statesmen of Japan, who has wide diplomatic experience, and Minister Takahira, the Japanese minister here, it is suggested, may be named as the third plenipotentiary.

Another important detail which has been the subject of informal discussion at the White House has been the language to be used at the conference. Russia will ask that the French language be used, and Japan will express a preference for English.

GOMEZ IS DYING.

Life of Idol of the Cubans is Rapidly Passing Away.

Havana advices state that since Thursday midnight the condition of Gen. Maximo Gomez has steadily grown worse, and his death may be expected at any time. He is 78 years old.

When Gen. Maximo Gomez raised the Cuban flag over a free Cuba on May 20, 1902, he saw accomplished that for which he fought and suffered for longer than thirty years.

Maximo Gomez is not a Cuban. He was born in Santo Domnigo, but in 1868 he espoused the Cuban cause and took up arms against the Spaniards. From that time until the United States defeated Spain he was a Cuban insurgent. In the field he fought, in Spanish prisons he spent weary days in planning revolution, and when at liberty he worked, once be ing a fruit peddler in Santo Domingo, but always with the one purpose in mind free Cuba.

WEEPS ON THE GALLOWS.

Wife Murderer Botts Loses H Nerve at Critical Moment.

Otis Botts, aged 21 years, was executed in the county jail at Peoria, Ill., Friday for the murder of his wife Jan. 5.

Botts spent the night laughing, joking and telling lewd stories. His mother wanted to attend the execution, but he said: "Don't do it; you'll make me lose my nerve."

Botts strangled his wife to death by tying a hair ribbon around her neck. When he faced the crowd the air of bravado which has marked his career to this time deserted him, and he broke down and wept. He was barely able to stand when the straps of the noose were being fixed.
