The Valentine Band.

The Valentine Concert band furnished music for the Fourth of July celebration in Norfolk, and made good. Twenty-five of the boys, all neatly uniformed in red blouse and white trousers, arrived in the city Monday for the celebration and races, and they played hard all day long on the Fourth and until far into the evening. They are a good advertisement for Valentine. The band is composed of gentlemen, through and through, and they are musicians, too. They spent today in Norfolk and this afternoon tendered a serenade to the Daily News which was composed of clever music, well executed. A feature of the second number, which made a particular hit, was the shooting of a gun at the opportune moments. The serenade was appreciated by The News.—Norfolk Daily News.

The women are complaining about little chickens drowned, young turkeys perishing from cold and wet weather, gardens swamped by rain, coyotes numerous and bold, etc. But everybody is well, especially the children are numerous and hearty, so, as we existed through the dry season, we'll live through the wet one.
