TALK OF THE TOWN

District court will be in session next Monday in Valentine.

We noticed Geo. D. Huggins of Norden in town yesterday.

Cyrus VanMeter called at this office yesterday on business.

L. N. Russell, representing the C. N. U. called on us yesterday.

Good music all evening by the Fort orchestra next Thursday at Church's hall.

We hear that our friend Lee Shepard has rented the Bowers' residence. Wonder why?

Mrs. Gertrude Brown is here from Garrison, Neb., visiting her folks, Mr. and Mrs. Moon.

Joe Sweeney was down from Enlow precinct last week on business and stayed to see the official count of ballots.

We enjoyed a pleasant visit from Rasmus Anderson, Rosebud's popular hotel man, last week while he was down here.

Notice the official count of votes in this paper and clip it out, past it on a piece of card board and keep for future reference.

Frank H. Parks and Miss Grace Z. Werdell, both colored, were married in this city Tuesday, the Rev. J. W. Morgan officiating.

E. B. Quible came down from Merriman last Friday night and was here Saturday at the official count, as was also Mr. Armstrong of Cody.

Mr. McLaughlin, a pleasant gentleman representing Miller & Paine of Lincoln, had a display of furs at Mrs. Elmore's three days this week.

Wm. Lee and wife of Brownlee visited several days in town last week. Mrs. Lee is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Campbell of our city.

Shepard Bros. have put a big sign upon their livery barn which makes an attractive addition to the new front which they have recently built.

Lee Shepard, a brother of Jas. F. Shepard who has been here from Antelope county on a visit the past couple of weeks, has returned to his home.

You will miss a treat if you do not take supper at the lunch counter or buy some home made candy or a chrysanthemum. Come and enjoy the music by the Post orchestra.

Capt. O'Neill and wife have recently returned from a western trip, taking in the Portland fair and visiting many places of interest on the western coast. They enjoyed their trip.

Julius Raurer and wife and boy came down to Valentine Tuesday and the following day Mrs. Raurer and her son, who is 14 years old, went down to Grand Island where the boy will attend school.

Mrs. Shattuck was called to Kentucky about ten days ago to see her daughter and grandson who were very low with diphtheria. In a recent letter Mrs. Shattuck reports them getting better.

J. M. Ralya called at our office last Friday while in the city for building material and men. He is making substantial improvements on his land that he and his family have taken up on the Snake.

Mrs. John Dressler came up from O'Neill last Sunday and is visiting her husband who is at work on the new passenger depot which is nearing completion now, the slate roofing being put on and is ready for the finishing work.

Chrysanthemum sale and "Feast of Pumpkins" at Church's hall on Nov. 23.

U. G. McBride came down from Rushville the first of the month and is helping in the Chicago House.

Herman Riege came to town last Saturday with a sore eye which he had examined by the doctor who took a splinter out of it. Mr. Riege stayed in town several days to doctor and felt much better.

Dave Dunn dropped in for a social chat Monday morning while he was in town. He tells us that Mrs. Dunn is able to sit up and is slowly recovering. Mr. Dunn has changed his mail from Britt to Valentine so as to have it carried up and dropped in his box beside the road as the mail goes past his house and he will thus have the benefit of daily mail from Valentine.

SCHOOL NOTES.

By Margaret Quigley, Clara Dunham.

Cecil and Mae Barnes have gone home for a short visit.

Andrew Galloway was out Monday on account of sickness.

Winifred Keeley has returned to school after a week's absence.

The second primary grade is quite interested in the study of the town maps.

The seventh and eight grades will soon begin a special work in picture study.

School will close on December 22, for the two weeks vacation during holidays.

The fifth grade changed from Baldwin's fourth reader to Cyr's fourth, last week.

The eleventh grade has taken up Lancelot and Elaine by Tennyson in the Literature class.

The tenth grade students are struggling over the originals at the close of the first book in geometry.

The children in the second grade are very much interested in the book, "The Garden Behind the Moon" by Howard Pyle.

Minnie Hornback has quit school and gone to teaching. She has a school near Brownlee. We wish her success in her new work.

Swiss Savage of the eight grade has been absent some time on account of sickness. We hope she will soon be able to be in school again.

As Professor says, we derive as much good from a poem or a piece of literature as we put into it. How necessary it is then that we should put our very best into this study.

Some of the children in the first primary room were made happy by Miss Kortz sending them certificates for punctuality and regular attendance during the months of Sept. and Oct.

School will close on Wednesday before Thanksgiving and will not begin until the following Monday, on account of General Teachers' Association which is to be held the 1st and 2nd of December.

DAYBREAK.

The first beam of the sun,
Said to each and every one,
"Come! Get up! and lie away
For this is the coming of the day."
It touched the woodbird on the wing,
And said "awake, O bird and sing!"
It whispered to the fields of corn,
"Bow down and hail the coming morn."
So on it sped and far away
And told each one of the coming day,
It crossed the churchyard with a sigh,
And said "not yet! In quiet lie."
- W. B. HALEY.
