 C. H. Cornell went to Omaha today.
 John P. Jones was very low with typhoid fever the past week but is now improving and will soon be up.
 Lewis' East Lynne played last night to a crowded house in our city. The performance was good and the audience satisfied.
 Judge Towne has been confined to his home the past week with stomach trouble but is now able to be and about the house.
 C. H. Cornell received a telegram from Senator Millard yesterday that Rev. A. R. Julian and county judge, E. Olson, of Rock county, were recommended for the appointments respectively of register and receiver of the Valentine landoffice.

We publish some liquor laws this week which many have perhaps never read. Study the laws and the existing conditions. If our people are in favor of these laws and want them enforced it will be done. There will be no trifling, no half-way ground, unless our town board weakens. If they refuse, then citizens will act and the town board may be sorry. Does Valentine want a grand jury called? Or will our present officers do their duty?

Wedding Bells.
 Maynard Bishop and Miss Bessie Thompson were married at the Bishop residence by Rev. Holsclaw, Wednesday noon, Dec. 20, 1905. These young people have grown up in Valentine and are congratulated by numerous friends who wish them prosperity and happiness.

L. E. Shepard and Mrs. Emma Dennis were married at the Episcopal church by the Rev. Wells, Wednesday evening Dec. 20, 1905. The bride and groom are both well known Valentine people and have the best wishes of a host of friends for their future success and happiness. THE DEMOCRAT wishes to join with other friends in congratulations.

Grand Island, Neb., Dec. 17, '05.
 Mr. I. M. Rice,
 Editor Democrat.
 Dear Sir:
 I take pleasure in writing you a few lines for your paper and my friends. After spending three weeks here in the Grand Island Business College, I now feel safe in saying that I feel satisfied with my work which I have taken up.

Sunday, in company with John Shelbourn, Jr., two wheels were hired and we set off for a ride to the Platte river which passes along seven miles south of town. The ride was made in 35 minutes, and after resting 5 minutes, we started to return but with not quite so much speed as the wind was blowing just a little. On returning to town, we rode out to the Old Soldiers' Home where we were royally entertained and shown through the different apartments by our old townsmen, Messrs. Storey and Hubbard, both of Valentine. We felt greatly impressed with the pleasure these aged veterans enjoyed by having us call on them. We were shown through the different rooms, and at one place we noticed the different badges worn by these boys of '61. In some rooms we saw pictures of the bloody struggles and thought perhaps each had a picture of his own favorite battle. In the library we saw volume upon volume of all kinds of good books. Some had gathered collections of fine specimens of rocks from Wind Cave, while others had brought shells from the sea. One had a relic from the fire in Chicago in the form of a bunch of tacks, perhaps one-half pound, which had melted and run together and were in one solid mass. We saw the picture of our county judge, Uncle Dick Towne, among the collection of pictures which makes us feel that when people leave Cherry county they don't forget its people.

Yours respectfully,
 FRANK GROOMS.

Northeast Table.
 Frank Mumford expects to put in a telephone next.
 Sam Smalley is helping Henry Fowler through husking.
 We wish Mary Becker success in her trial of being a bachelor girl on her homestead.

Martin Becker sold a fine horse recently for $125. Who says horse raising don't pay?
 Daniel Fowler is able to be out for fresh air on pleasant days. We hope he gets no back set.

John Granger finished husking corn Monday. J. Fowler and Bob Ashburn were helping him.
 Dame Rumor says that Christmas chimes will be intermingled with wedding bells in these parts.

Mrs. Thos. Fowler spent the day with her daughter, Leola Granger, recently. How nice for mothers and daughters to be able to visit each other.

The box social was a perfect success, that was held at Becker school house on Saturday of last week. We hear that some of the boxes sold as high as $2.50 each.

It certainly could not be finer for stock-raisers in any part of the world than just in Cherry county. The mild weather we are having will certainly make the feeding of cattle unnecessary for some time.

Resolutions.

Valentine Womans Christian Temperance Union in a meeting assembled at Valentine, Nebr., this 16th day of December, 1905, hereby resolve that we will use all honorable means to have the enforcement of all liquor laws in our town. And whereas our present Town Board and prosecuting attorney are allowing the saloons to violate the laws of our state by allowing chairs and screens in the saloons, gambling, wine rooms, selling to minors, etc.

Also resolve that we, as a union, will request the officials to enforce the laws, and if this is not done, we shall report these conditions to President Roosevelt and forward him a copy of the names of all the prominent men and others who signed the petitions for saloons they know are violating the laws. And we will ask him whether it is policy to send government money to build up Ft. Niobrara or other government property while these conditions exist.

Adopted and signed by the Womans Christian Temperance Union and many others.

Col. Charles J. Holt caused a sensation last week when he distributed circulars containing the names of all who had signed the applications for saloon licenses. And now this has been started, the Womans Christian Temperance Union intend to publish circulars every year containing the names of all signers to saloon petitions together with their bondsmen.

Recognizing the value of the work that has been accomplished here, seen and unseen, through the efforts of Col. Holt during his stay with us, and believing it has been through the workings of providence that he came, therefore be it

RESOLVED, That this people extend to Col. Holt a rising vote of thanks and appreciation; That these resolutions be printed in the Valentine papers.
