TALK OF THE TOWN

Dan Barnes drove down from his ranch this week and transacted business in our city.

John D. Eaton has purchased the Holsclaw feed store and will conduct the feed business at the same old stand.

Ayers Bros. have an ad in this paper in which they call attention to their business running a meat market, and inviting the public to call and see them.

Miss Cora Smith of this city and Martin VanBuren of Ft. Niobrara, both colored, were married at the M. E. parsonage by Rev. Waterman, Jan. 10, 1906.

Geo. Christopher and Aaron Van Winkle of Lincoln, who recently purchased the Federal Cattle Co. ranch near Simeon, came up this week and went out to their ranch.

J. W. Ward, the Britt merchant, returned from the Jt. Joseph hospital in Omaha recently and is growing stronger. He had been doctoring for some time but is now on the mend.

Geo. H. Hornby places an advertisement in THE DEMOCRAT calling attention to his business and also having a cut of his store building which is attractive and makes a good advertisement.

The crop and soil special train arrived here last Thursday and several speakers told the people in the court house about horses, potatoes, alfalfa and the kind of corn to plant. There was a good attendance.

A. H. Metzger was in town last Wednesday week on business and called at our office to make some change in their brand advertisement. Mr. Metzger changes his postoffice address to Rolf, Neb., as a matter of convenience in getting his mail.

Mrs. W. B. Hammond was taken to Omaha, Emanuel hospital, Sunday and was operated upon Tuesday. Mr. Hammond received a telegram Wednesday morning stating that she stood the operation and was doing well. His friends are hoping now for her recovery.

Jacob Klein has purchased the Lewis farm down the river, from W. A. Parker and is going to try farming and raising hogs in which Mr. Klein says there is more money than in cattle at the present time for the capital invested. THE DEMOCRAT predicts success in his venture.

Married—At the Methodist parsonage in Valentine, Tuesday, Jan. 9, 1905, Miss Lena L. Bacon of Norden, and Franklin E. Todd of Sparks, Rev. Royal D. Waterman officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Green, Miss Bessie Schifferns and John Todd were members of the bridal party.

Charles Shepard and W. F. A. Meltendorff were arrested by City Marshal Hilsinger for fighting Monday night and had their hearing Tuesday before Judge Towne. Charles Shepard plead guilty and was fined $9.50. W. F. A. Meltendorff asked for a continuance of his hearing, which was set for the 22nd.

Elmer and Harry Ayers have purchased the Charbonneau meat market, taking charge Jan. 1st. The business will be run in the name of Ayers Bros. meat market. Harry Ayers has been engaged in the meat market at Merriman for some time past and his experience will be useful in conducting their business here.

The Presbyterian ladies will give a chicken-pie supper in Bethel hall on Tuesday, the 23rd, beginning at 5 o'clock, the price 35c. Our citizens are always glad to patronize these worthy efforts in behalf of the church and feel that they get double value for their money.

Mrs. R. A. Gipple of College View, Lincoln, has been in the city the past week stopping at the home of Mrs. Shore and has solicited some business cards to be placed on the back of letter heads together with a brief write up of Valentine. This will make a good advertisement, going out to the people in every letter written and 5000 people or more will doubtless have placed before them the advantages of our town and these advertisements.

The keepers of the sporting houses around Valentine were ordered arrested by the county commissioners and brought before Judge Towne Monday and each fined upon their plea of guilty of conducting a house of ill repute. The commissioners have also given instructions to the county attorney to continue to prosecute these keepers until houses of such character are closed up and done away with. It now remains with the officers of Cherry county to do their duty as officers and as citizens. Will they do it? We know some that will do their duty. The tax payers who are interested in this movement will watch with interest and note those who shirk or fail to perform a duty, and he who weakens need not further aspire to office in this county or anywhere that this knowledge exists.

SCHOOL NOTES.

By Margaret Quigley,
Clara Dunham.

David Bristol has entered the 7th grade since vacation.

Several of the 4th grade are absent on account of illness.

George Brown, formerly of this place, has re-entered school.

Emma and Edith Marks entered the 2nd primary room Monday morning.

After a pleasant vacation the children came back ready for school work.

Edith Adamson has returned to school having been out of school two months being sick with typhoid fever.

The 7th and 8th grades are busy making book cover designs. The 7th grade is also making relief maps of Europe.

In the 1st Intermediate department there are 28 pupils who will receive certificates for not being absent or tardy during the month of December.

Mae Barnes is back in school. She has been to her home near Rolf for some time on account of sickness. Her brother, Cecil, did not return with her.

Two changes have been made in teachers since the holidays. Miss Mina Blessings of Auburn, Neb., has taken Miss Fannie Mutchmore's place in the primary room. Miss Mutchmore gave up her school to take up the duties of housekeeping, she being married to W. A. Pettycrew of this place Jan. 3. Miss Effie Carlson of the class of '02 has taken Miss Katherine Friend's place in the 2nd intermediate room. Miss Friend is also to take upon herself the duties of housekeeping being married to Mr. Arthur Yoerg, who is day operator of this place.
