THURSDAY, MARCH 22, 1906.

The plan of too many men sent to congress has been their own selfish interests instead of doing the work of their constituents.

(K. C. Journal.)

A local merchant asked a Salina editor to roast the city administration for letting an itinerate peddler come in there and undersell him on goods. This is what the editor wrote: "City Dads, you will hereby take notice that you are roasted for permitting peddlers to sell goods here. The merchant for whom we do this favor has his job printing done in Chicago.

What think you of the 600 Moros killed recently at the mouth of a crater in the Philippines, where they had taken refuge, by 3000 U. S. soldiers and a few hired Filipinos. There was no mercy shown. Every man, woman and child were slain. Spanish cruelties wouldn't compare with such murderous atrocities. Our Christian nation should bow her head in shame.

(Hastings Democrat.)

Far be it from any intention of ours to throw cold water upon the projects of the industrious attorney general of Nebraska. But we can't help but wonder why he postponed for two long years that railroad tax case, and only got busy about it, when the State Journal began to tickle him under the chin with a U. S. senator feather. Certainly the people of Nebraska have no intention of electing such a little corporation creature as Norris Brown to the United States senate.

The person who gets the fewest letters makes the most complaint to the postmaster; the man who never has a good meal at home growls at the hotel accommodations; the man who complains most of his neighbors is the meanest of the lot; the churchmember who pays the least of the preacher's salary finds the most fault and complains of the mismanagement of the church; the man who never invests a dollar in town enterprises is always crying down public improvements; the loafer or no account workman is always to the front in strikes and labor agitations; and the subscriber who is the slowest to pay his subscription finds the most fault with his paper.—Mrs. Gates, in Granger.

(Crete Democrat.)

It is stated that the New York Life Insurance Co. contributed to the republican national corruption fund the last three national campaigns $148,702.50, and it is recommended that suits be brought to recover the same. Now let Roosevelt see to it that his campaign committee, headed by his Postmaster general, Mr. Cortelyou, puts it back, and that the national committeemen for 1896 and 1900 are compelled to restore the money they used, belonging to the prospective widows and orphans. Remember that this is only one Life Co. and the others should sue for the amounts they contributed to keep the God and Morality party in power. What a commentary on the honesty of a party.

Considerable interest is being manifested in Rev. U. G. Ware, president of the U. B. I. Cattle company, who is under sentence for fencing government land and fraudulent homestead entries. There was a tax against the U. B. I. Cattle company in Cherry county that the county treasurer was unable to collect years ago, and the manner in which Rev. Ware shirked that tax was not commendatory. He is not as innocent as he'd have people believe.

The preacher Ware Has had a scare, He is president of the U. B. I. The Cattle Co. With lots of dough That filed by proxy Don't you know On government land, They say it's sand, And isn't good for you or I.

Some years ago This Cattle Co. Had taxes known as U. B. I. They failed to pay And to this day Have shirked that tax And kept away From Cherry Co. Yes this is so Would you do this if you be I?

The Reverend Ware Should have a scare He is no better than you or I. Could we escape The endless tape If we were caught In such a scrape? You would not swerve You'd let him serve If I. B. U. and U. B. I.

Japan was no sooner out of war than the famine came upon her people and now they, like the Russians, are having troubles of their own.

If Norris Brown has suddenly become great enough to be endorsed for senator it must be a boom started by the railroads. Mr. Brown has not earned a seat in the U. S. senate by his record as attorney general.

Three more arrests were made last week for horse stealing on the reservation. Two half-breeds, Will Jones and Sam Crazy Bull, and M. D. Wilcox, the postmaster at Dixon, being those accused. The state claims to have strong evidence against Mr. Wilcox, but persists he is entirely innocent and says this is only spite work. A preliminary hearing was had and they were released on $500 bond to appear March 15.—Butte Gazette.

(Rushville Standard.)

When it comes to having a mind on the land leasing bill, Congressman Kinkaid has a mind about the size of a kitten. When he receives a letter from some community asking to oppose the bill; that the people of that community are opposed to it, he answers back that he is also opposed to the bill. If he gets a communication from another section of the country, where the people are favorable to such a bill, he writes back that he is also in favor of it and is doing what he can to push the measure through. If Moses does not watch out the goblins will get him.

Can We Afford It?

(Randolph Enterprise.)

Editor Enterprise: In a series of articles written by George Mc A. Miller, Ph. D., President of Ruskin University, entitled Economics of Moses and published in March number of the Arena magazine, the author among other things makes these startling statements:

"Twelve thousand children of the poor in Chicago have no place to learn to read." "One hundred thousand children in Chicago that never heard of Jesus Christ except from profanity on the streets—worse conditions in New York, and like conditions in all large cities." "Twenty millions of children in this Christian land with no chance to inherit from their parents even a grave plot, and but scant chance of ever owning an acre by their own toil."

If these assertions are true, and I believe they are, how can you with these unwelcome truths staring you in the face, that so hurt our national pride, and "take us down a peg or two"—I say in Heaven's name, how can you, my Christian friend, any longer consistently and conscientiously contribute your dimes and dollars to foreign missions? ED SECRET.

Congressman Kinkaid keeps turning over the proposition of his probable re-election and holds out the hope to his constituents in Northwestern Nebraska of an appropriation amendment for Fort Niobrara that was introduced by Senator Burkett as an amendment to an appropriation bill that had passed the house for other posts. Why didn't Moses get busy in the house before the bill passed that body? The promise that the Ft. Niobrara appropriation to rebuild the post will probably pass at the next session is only another excuse to give him another term of fice and puts us no nearer than we were ten years ago when everybody expected something would be done at once. Talk about Kinkaid's having a pull and that he can do something for Ft. Niobrara. Why don't he do it? Why didn't he tack on Burkett's amendment to the appropriation bill before it passed the house? C. H. Cornell can do more for Ft. Niobrara than Kinkaid and will make a better representative for our people. He'll come nearer doing what the people of this district want done than Moses, and ought to be nominated by the republicans to succeed our present representative. He's at Washington now and has been for the past six weeks, in the interest of the people as an additional representative, and why don't our people get together and elect him to succeed Moses P. Kinkaid?

Baking Economy.

By the use of perfect baking powder the housewife can derive as much economy as from any other article used in baking and cooking. In selecting a baking powder, therefore, care should be exercised to purchase one that retains its original strength and always remains the same, thus making the food sweet and wholesome and producing sufficient leavening gas to make the baking light.

Very little of this leavening gas is produced by the cheap baking powders, making it necessary to use a double quantity ordinarily required to secure good results.

Manufacturers of cream of tartar powders ask about twice as much for their goods as that paid for any other baking powder, and food prepared from the cream of tartar powders contains large quantities of Rochelle Salts. Ask your physician what the results would be from the constant dosing of Rochelle Salts.

A baking powder that is recommended by leading physicians and chemists, and which is both perfect in quality and moderate in price, is therefore suggested—one that has been found to be "best by test"—"Calumet." From the standpoints of purity, wholesomeness and economy, there is nothing to equal it.

Food prepared with Calumet is absolutely free from Rochelle Salts, Alum, Lime, Ammonia, or any injurious substance.
