Talk of the Town.

Rices writes insurance.
H. B. Clapp of Simeon was in town Monday.

J. M. Ralya drove in Tuesday from Burge after a load of grain.

Wm. Riege and Henry Detgen of Riege were Valentine visitors Saturday.

Ed Searby and William Brown were visitors in town from Crookston last Saturday.

The school entertainment given Friday night in the opera house was well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Blakely were in town from Simeon last Friday and Saturday.

Henry Sanner of Britt called to take a look at our improvements in our office Tuesday while in town on business.

Mrs. Stanley Ray and child of Montrose, Colo., are in the city visiting with Mr. Ray's sisters, Mrs. Chas. Sparks and Mrs. T. C. Hornby.

J. A. Sparks purchased J. C. Pettijohn's residence property last week. Mr. Pettijohn gives possession after school closes when he expects to leave Valentine.

County Surveyor McDaniel was up from Woodlake last Tuesday and called at this office to have his business card inserted in the advertising columns of this paper.

The Sterling Stock company played at Church's opera house last Thursday night to a crowded house and gave a splendid performance of a "Runaway Tramp."

Col. Holt, who lectured here early the past winter, is expected here Saturday and will hold meetings Saturday, Sunday and Monday evenings. Come out and hear him.

John Veach and wife departed for Pomeroy, Wash., a couple of weeks ago. His son, Harry, went in February. This item is a little late but we didn't know of it before.

F. M. Seger came in from Longmont, Colo., last Thursday and is visiting friends in town. He is looking just the same as when he left here and says he likes his new home.

During the past week we have been very busy repairing THE DEMOCRAT office. We now have a new floor and steel ceiling which makes the building look better. Come in and see us.

Chas. Peddicord, who had the cancer removed from his lip a couple of weeks ago, was in town Tuesday and his lip has healed nicely. Al Thacker and A. D. Spall were in town with him.

Hans and Veach have secured a contract for painting at Ft. McKenzie, Wyo., which will keep them busy the greater part of the summer. They depart for their new field of labor the last of this week.

The U. S. land office is again open for business with Mr. Olson of Bassett as receiver and Luke Bates as register. Special agent, Mr. Pugh, will remain here some time, indefinite. L. K. Brownell also remains as clerk.

Levi L. Anderson took a half ounce of laudanum Tuesday just after dinner during a spell of despondency and came near dying. The doctors pumped several gallons of water through his stomach and finally revived him. Recently Mr. Anderson lost his job on the railroad and has no work in view. He has been at work as section foreman and in the yards here for nearly a dozen years.

Early Dress Goods Buying

Buy early while the lines are new, fresh and up to date, and when you have your choice of the many beautiful patterns we have to offer you. We trust you will take a look over our assortment whether you care to buy or not. This is the time of year you can pick up the bargains in winter goods and get an idea as to what you want for summer wear. They are all on display. Don't wait

The Corner Store, Davenport & Co.

Rev. Morgan and wife went down to Omaha last week, where Mrs. Morgan will remain a few weeks in hopes of benefitting her health. Mr. Easley filled the Presbyterian pulpit last Sunday in the absence of Rev. Morgan.

The sale of Isham Bros. here last Saturday was a success. People who saw the fine horses sold say they are the finest ever brought to the county. Martin Becker, Geo. Camm, Wm. Heelan, Frank Higgin and S. J. Blakely each bought a horse at this sale.

Notice the advertisement this week of Bishop & Young of Cody who are doing an extensive lumber business and call attention of those needing articles in their line. They are very nice people to do business with and are always glad to make a new customer.

Mrs. Anna Ennis, wife of Wm. Ennis of Chadron, died Tuesday noon of typhoid fever after a three week's illness which began with erysipelas. Mrs. Ennis was the second daughter of Mrs. Sarah Wilson and had been married six years. Four brothers, two sisters and the mother, beside the husband and a son, two years old, are left to mourn the departed one. Mrs. Wilson has been with her since about March 1st, having gone up to visit for awhile, when her daughter became ill and she remained to care for her. The remains were brought down from Chadron and the funeral is to be held here today.

D. A. Piercy died at Macon, Ga., last Sunday of heart trouble. He will be brought to Omaha for interment and the members of his family are all expected to be there. William, Dave and Miss Agnes went down from here Tuesday. Another son, Leonard, was in Omaha, and three daughters, Miss May of Portland, Ore., Mrs. Frank Lanning of Terminal, Cal., and Mrs. Dr. Archer of Grafton, Neb., are also expected to be present at the funeral. Mr. Piercy was born in New York state Dec. 25, 1837 and was 68 years and 3 months old at his death. He enlisted in the civil war in 1861 and served through that war and later was a soldier in the Indian wars of the west. He came to Cherry county about 20 years ago from Omaha and settled at Kennedy where he has since made his home. Last fall his failing health caused him to seek the southern climate for the winter and he went to Southern Florida where he and Mrs. Piercy spent the winter. Recently they came north to Macon, Ga., where his death occurred very suddenly last Sunday.
