that the funeral takes place in town today.

The Ladies Aid society of the M. E. church was royally entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. G. Easley.
After the regular work and a short business meeting, a dainty lunchcon was served and a pleasant afternoon was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. S. Moon gave a birthday party last Saturday evening to Messrs. Levi Sparks, O. W. Morey, John Bullis and Miss Helen Sparks whose birthday, as also Mrs. Moon's, comes on March 24.
Several other guests were present and all spent the evening pleasantly, playing games. After partaking of a birthday supper they congratulated each other and with wishes for another pleasant birthday, they started a new year.

Mrs. Harden received the announcement last Monday of the marriage of her sister, Miss Dora Pease, to Mr. Herbert H. Knott of Wyncote, Wyo. Miss Pease lived her with her sister for some time after the death of her mother and her friends were looking forward to the close of her school in Wyncote, expecting her home to spend the summer. THE DEMO-CRAT joins with numerous friends here in extending congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Knott.

Tom Williamson Dead.

Judge Towne received a message last Saturday that Tom Williamson, his son-in-law, died Friday night of heart failure in St.
Louis, Mo. He had been failing in health for some time but was able to be up and around. Friday afternoon he had a severe pain in his side and died about 10:30 Friday night. The body was interred at Jefferson Barracks and the funeral held Sunday.

Judge Towne and daughter, Mabel, went down to St. Louis from here, starting Sunday. A letter from there says they reached there safely and that the Judge has been feeling very well.

The Home Protection club met at Bethel hall Tuesday night, and, although the audience was not as large as we desired, and as we hope we shall have in the future, we had a very enthusiastic meeting. The chairman of the evening spoke with no uncertain sound with regard to present conditions of our town and was fearless in expressing himself as to his attitude in relation to future betterment, and we commend him for the stand he takes and pledge our hearty co-operation in bringing about an improved state of affairs through the enforcement of law.

An article condemning saloon advertisements was read. Newspapers and periodicals that help to overthrow the liquor traffic by refusing to advertise the evil, will be the kind that in the long run will be found "on top," for the time is approaching when the liquor traffic, as slavery, will be trampled under foot and ignored, and the mere mention of the past will cause a blush of shame—that this fair Christian land must ever suffer the sting resulting from this blight.

It was announced that Col. Holt will be present to hold an afternoon meeting, Saturday, March 31, in Bethel hall. All are cordially invited. Also Sunday and Monday at eight o'clock in the M. E. church.

The next meeting of the Home Protection club will be on Tuesday, April 10th, Everybody remember and come.

Thirteen Men Accused Is Banker Huntington

Gordon M. Huntington, Accused of Subornation of Perjury.

At Gordon Wednesday morning Deputy Marshal Proctor—the newly appointed officer who served during the Cuban campaign as President Roosevelt's orderly—made his first arrest since his appointment. The arrest was considered an important one in the land fraud prosecutions, the man whom he took into custody being Thomas M. Huntington, a banker of Gordon and president of the Maverick Trust and Loan company. Huntington is charged with subornation of perjury. In the information it is alleged that he procured Samuel M. Maynard and Francis J. Porter to swear falsely when making homestead entries.

With this arrest the government secret service men, working under the direction of L. C. Wheeler, agent in charge, have caused thirteen men to be taken into custody in land fraud cases which have not yet been submitted to the grand jury.

It is alleged that the fraudulent entries made by Maynard and Porter were for the Maverick Loan and Trust company, a corporation in which Chancellor Huntington of Wesleyan university, Lincoln, has an interest. He emphatically states, however, that he does not own a foot of land in western Nebraska, although his son, Thomas M. Huntington, stated in an interview several weeks ago that his father was interested in the trust company to the amount of $1,500.

Another banker recently held to the grand jury upon a charge of subornation of perjury is H. C.
Dale of Rushville. He is cashier of the Stockmen's bank of that town.

Among the eleven other arrests which have been caused through secret service investigation is that of J. M. Tucker, county attorney of Cherry county. The charge against him is subornation of perjury.

Against some of the men three charges have been preferred.
There is J. C. Pettijohn, for instance, receiver at the Valentine land office, who was summarily removed from duty by an order from the president. The complaint against him and his brother, Carleton Pettijohn, alleges that they unlawfully inclosed the public domain; they suborned men to swear falsely when filing upon land and that they entered into a conspiracy to defraud the government by means of fictitious homestead entries.

Another government employee was arrested for alleged complicity in the land frauds. That person is William C. Smoot, government farmer on the Pine Ridge reservation. Subornation of perjury is the charge against him.

Thus far three men have been arrested in connection with the transactions of Bartlett Richards and William G. Comstock, the two wealthiest and best known cattle barons of Nebraska. One of this trio is Charles C. Jamison, secretary and treasurer of the Nebraska Land and Feeding company, of which Richards is president and Comstock is vice president. The charge against Jamison is subornation of perjury.

Secret service men were unable to get any statement from him, but they succeeded better after the arrest of Amid B. Todd, who was taken into custody early in the winter. His affidavit has not yet been made public, but it is intimated that he tells of many instances wherein he went to Iowa and secured a great number of old soldiers and soldiers' widows to file for Richards and Comstock.

Edward Letson, son of the mayor of Horton, Kan., was another to be arrested in connection with the Richards-Comstock transac-
