Geo. Beamer had a runaway one day last week which proved disastrous to the mower and came near proving so to George. It seems that the tugs on one of the horses were a little long and he had stopped and was shortening them up and when going between the horses to shorten the inside one they became frightened and started to run. He grabbed the inside lines but was unable to stop them. He slid back along the tongue and fell in front of the mower. The sickle bar passed over his body and one wheel ran over his ankle injuring it so as to disable him for a few days. It was a narrow escape and Box O came near being no more.—The Gordon Journal.

Scotch Collie Finds Way Back Over 500 Miles.
Des Moines, Ia., Sept. 15.— With nothing to guide it but its brute instinct, a Scotch collie dog belonging to D. E. Wees of this city journeyed 500 miles by itself from Valentine, Neb., where it had been sold, back home.

It reached here thin, run down and shaggy, but the same old dog.
Mr. Wees sold it at Hot Springs, S. D., to a Nebraska man who took it with him to Valentine. Mr.
Wees will offer the man his money and keep the dog.—World-Herald.
The dog above referred to belonged to J. W. Stetter of this city who purchased it several months ago for his children and was a beauty.
