Talk of the Town.

Mr. Pote is suffering from a carbuncle on his jaw.

Jennings Pike is sick at the home of Bert Pike this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wales of Crookston were city visitors Tuesday.

We were unavoidable late last week, our ready prints not arriving until Friday noon.

The W. C. T. U. is called to meet in Bethel hall, Friday evening, Sept. 28. A full attendance is desired.

Davenport & Co., G. A. Chapman, Geo. Hornby and Max Viertel have change of ads this week. Read them.

G. E. Tracewell returned Tuesday morning from Iowa, where he had gone to dispose of two car loads of horses.

Misses Lena McCrea and Hattie Gaskill, returned home from Norden, where they have been visiting the past month.

Dr. Darnes, the Eye Specialist, of Omaha, will be at the Valentine House, Valentine, Neb., Wednesday, October 3rd.

Chas. Jordan and family moved Tuesday in his property, which he bought of P. F. Simons in the west part of town.

Isa Boyer stepped on a nail Saturday night and it proved quite serious, as the Doctor had to lance his foot the first of the week.

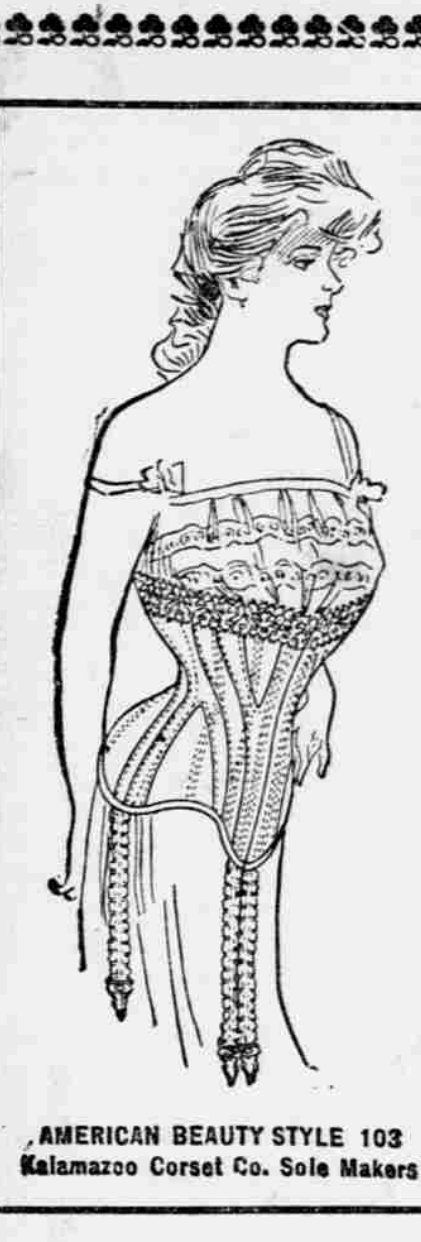

Don Kellogg, Geo. Tracewell and G. Leanagh returned from Iowa, Tuesday where they have been selling horses the past week.

Mrs. Andrew Miller arrived from Merriman, Saturday morning to visit old friends in this city till Sunday. She expects to start the 1st of next week for Longmont, Col., to visit her parents Mr. and Mrs. Frank Seger.

J. F. Swain is going to have a sale of his land and other effects on Saturday, Oct. 13, 1906, beginning at 10 o'clock a. m., at his residence 15 miles east of Valentine on the river. Notice his large sale bills which are already out.

This office turned out several hundred large sale bills last week, which we think are as good as any of those gotten out in Fremont or Omaha, being printed in two colors. If you are contemplating having sale bills printed, call at our office and see our samples. We do this, and other kinds of job work, on short notice and guarantee to please. Our prices are right.

Married—At the home of the bride's mother in Valentine, Saturday, Sept. 22, 1906, at 3 o'clock p. m., Dewitt F. Story, of Cody, and Miss Laura Newman of this city, Rev. C. E. Connell, pastor of the M. E. church, officiating. Mr. Story is the principal of the Cody school and is highly esteemed by all who know him. Miss Newman has only resided in Valentine about a year but has greatly endeared herself to her many friends who will all join in extending congratulations. The happy couple will take up their residence at Cody at once.

AN EXTENSIVE SCHEME OF LAND FRAUD AT ALLIANCE

Chicago, Sept. 24.—An extensive scheme of land frauds in government lands in the vicinity of Alliance, Neb., was unearthed here today, and Patrick J. King, for many years the head "policy" promoter of Chicago, was arrested on a charge of being the ring leader. For three months secret service operatives have been at work in Chicago in connection with the existence of a company said to have organized for the purpose of illegally obtaining title to homesteads in Nebraska, and today the first arrest was made on complaint of Secret Service Operative Robert H. Hobbs of Washington. Subornation of perjury was the specific charge on which King was arrested. He was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Foote on bonds until October 4.

It is charged that King, with a number of other men, has used aged civil war veterans and their widows to further their scheme of obtaining title to vast tracts of land in Nebraska. King is charged with having fraudulently obtained title to seven sections of land from as many former soldiers.

Agents of King are said to have persuaded former soldiers to file claims on land, after which they were induced to sign contracts to transfer the title to King. The prospective homesteader was then given railroad fare to Nebraska and his expenses paid. When title was cleared the land was turned over to King. The land filed upon is of little value at present and irrigation was relied upon to make the scheme profitable.

King's case will have to be transferred to the courts of Nebraska for trial, because the alleged fraud was committed there. King demanded and was given a continuance.—World-Herald.

Don't forget the date of Dr. Barnes' visit, Wednesday, Oct. 3.
