REV. C. E. CONNELL, Pastor

Talk of the Town.

Mrs. Elmer Bristol is on the sick list this week.

Richard Taylor is working in the Home Bakery.

Alf Morris and family have moved into Woodlake for the winter to be near school for the children.

W. F. A. Meltendorff, wife and little girl returned from Omaha Tuesday where they had been attending the Ak-Sar-Ben.

Geo. Hershey is having his saloon repapered, the ceiling painted and the front painted. M. Christensen is making a neat job of it.

Max Viertel drove down from Crookston yesterday on business. He and family have recently been up to Hot Springs and the Black Hills visiting and enjoying a few days leisure.

Sam McAlevy had his leg broken Tuesday at Don Kellogg's ranch north of the military reservation. The horse he was riding fell and we suppose Sam fell under the horse. Mrs. Kellogg came to town for a doctor.

The sad news reached Gordon Monday afternoon of the death of S. C. Stanhope, former editor and proprietor of this paper. He was accidentally shot while out hunting, but we have no further particulars.—The Gordon Journal.

Mr. and Mrs. Johu DeWoody arrived last Friday from California and are visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Frank Brayton. They expect to remain here several weeks before returning to their home in California.

C. C. Thompson fell off his horse while speeding him on his race track a couple of weeks ago, and had three ribs broken and was pretty badly bruised. Mr. Thompson is able to be up around, walking with a cane now, and says he thinks his heart gave way as he doesn't remember anything of how he was hurt.

Josephine Rummelhart was brutally murdered in Omaha last Saturday night and now the Omaha police are apparently following every clew, but the right one, to find the unknown murderer, though several persons saw the man before the murder and a conductor and others saw a suspicious character bespattered with blood making his escape. The Omaha police force needs reorganizing.

Mrs. Wm. Palmer called at our office Monday to leave a dollar in advance for THE DEMOCRAT. Mrs. Palmer informs us that one day last week while they were threshing four gentlemen (?) from Valentine invaded their water melon patch, ate all they wanted and then deliberately smashed and destroyed the remainder. Now, this is a shame and a disgrace to our community. It wouldn't have been so bad if they'd eaten only what they wanted, (a thief seldom takes only what he needs) but to destroy what they couldn't use, is scoundrelism. Mr. and Mrs. Palmer are good people and anyone could have had all the melons they could eat for the asking
