Mrs. Polly McKenny and her daughter, Mrs. Vida Ninas, are here from Farley, Ia., visiting with relatives. Mrs. McKenny is a sister of Alf Bradley and Mrs. Gallino.

John F. Porath and Wm. Dittmer drove down from Riege Tuesday. Mr. Porath has a fine carriage for his family to ride in and makes an 18 mile drive in about two and a half to three hours.

H. M. Cramer went out to his father's farm Tuesday to help finish some fencing that his father is having done preparatory to leaving the farm for a year and which T. W. Cramer will rent for the next season.

Herman Detgen came down from the German Settlement Tuesday to transact business in town. He recently finished threshing a good crop of wheat. The price is not very high now but some of the farmers are selling a load now and then.

A. M. Morrissey went down to Omaha last week and brought his brother, J. G., who had gone to Omaha from Fairfax, S. D., in hopes of benefitting his health, home with him. He will remain here for some time if his health improves.

Dad Wilkinson was in town the first of the week, the same old jolly soul and as busy as a bird in springtime. Too many of us are hurrying through this world without stopping to admire the beauties of creation and take some pleasure in living. Dad had time to play a few games of checkers with the champion of Cherry county and left the belt with us for the present.

Walther F. A. Meltendorff,

Sam M. Terry was at the Chicago hotel Sunday and we enjoyed a little conversation with him. He has been out here in the west since 1855, with the exception of while he was with the "peninsular campaign." He's looking old but seems to enjoy good health yet and is just as ambitious as most young men. Says he would just as soon plant an apple tree now as he would 25 or 50 years ago. This is indeed a commendable spirit. The world misses the man who builds for posterity, and his memory should inspire survivors with the same generous nature.

Grandpa Cramer had the misfortune last Tuesday week while out fencing on his farm to stoop over and run a weed into his left eye near the pupil. The weed stuck in deep enough to probably cause the loss of sight in that eye. The recent cold weather caused inflammation and Mr. Cramer is now in town doctoring at the home of his son, H. M. Cramer, and is barely able to sit up only a part of the time. He and Mrs. Cramer had planned to get away before Thanksgiving to visit relatives in St. Joe, and expected to spend a year away from home.

Note the Change.

Owing to existing circumstances the Presbyterian ladies aid society will hold their annual bazaar and supper at Church's hall on Monday evening, Dec. 3, instead of previous date. 44
