TO GUARD 'SHIPS against the unseen dangers at sea, the United States Government maintains lighthouses.

To guard your home against the unseen dangers of food products, the Government has enacted a pure food law. The law compels the manufacturers of baking powder to print the ingredients on the label of each can.

The Government has made the label your protection—so that you can avoid alum—read it carefully, if it does not say pure cream of tartar hand it back and

Big Bargain Week.

During the week of December 21st to 28th inclusive, The Nebraska State Journal will accept $3 from mail subscribers for the whole year of 1907, without Sunday, or $4 with Sunday. The regular price is $4 and $5. This cut price is only good during this bargain week, and all you have to do is to mail your remittance to The State Journal, Lincoln, Neb., during that time, and you will receive the paper the whole year of 1907. Such a cut price is possible on account of large savings made by taking solicitors off the road. Instead of paying out railroad fare, hotel bills and other expenses, these savings are given to our subscribers direct by this big bargain offer. The coming session of the legislature will be the most interesting one ever held in the history of the state, and no matter what your politics are you should read The State Journal during this time. Reforms will be made in our present laws, reforms that interest you in dollars and cents. No matter what other papers you are taking, during such a session of the legislature you should be a Journal reader. Write a postal asking for a sample copy. The Journal stands for all that is best for Nebraskans and wants you to feel that whatever is for the public good is for its good. There is a new deal in Nebraska governmental affairs, and you should be watching every move. Farmers and all the other producers of the state are vitally interested in what will be done at Lincoln this winter. Remember the bargain week—December 21st to 28th. The Journal is the paper for you.

We no doubt will know the supreme court decision on the gambling law in the near future.

There was an account in the New York Herald some time ago of two burglars who broke into one of the finest churches in the city to steal the silver altar service. They effected an entrance, found the silver, but also found a demijohn of alcoholic wine, and when the sexton came next morning he found the two dead drunk behind the altar rails. It is a good thing to catch a burglar, but, oh my friends, you hardly ever catch a burglar that way. Nearly always it is some honest, hopeful, happy man, coming with glad heart to celebrate his own cleansing by the faith of Jesus Christ, that is entrapped by sacramental alcohol.

"Fitzgerald, Ga., a town of four thousand population, not long ago sought to become the location of the new building and repair shops of the Atlantic and Birmingham railway. The town was peculiarly adapted to the needs of such an industry, but the railroad officials refused to consider it because of the existence six saloons, experience having taught them that labor was more reliable in 'dry' territory. Last April four thousand conductors and motormen of the United Railways of St. Louis were notified by their employers that frequenting of saloons would subject them to instant dismissal. The United Mine Workers of America have shut out both saloonists and bartenders from membership in the organization. These are but a few of many instances which may be cited to illustrate the growing feeling against the saloon from a business standpoint.—Bonfort's Wine and Spirit Circular.
