Talk of the Town.

Wm. Erickson was in town the first of the week.

Supper 15c by the ladies aid a Mrs. Northrop's Tuesday evening.

W. F. A. Meltendorff has a change of advertisement in another column of this paper.

Judge Wood of Rushville was in Valentine last Saturday in the interest of the remonstrance against a saloon at Georgia.

Chapman tells you how to cure headaches in his ad this week which is to be found elsewhere in this issue.

Miss Ada Stinard has been compelled to give up her school in the House district north of town on account of ill health.

Geo. H. Hornby and daughter Helen drove to Crookston Wednesday morning to attend the funeral of Miss Bertha Schneider.

D. A. Kellogg, of Vienna, S. D., a brother of Don Kellogg of north table and a brother-in-law of Mac Cramer of our city is here visiting relatives and friends.

Instead of Mrs. Harry VanOrsdale as we stated last week, we are now reliably informed that it was Miss Mary VanOrsdale who returned from a visit back east.

Roy E. Phelps, the Ainsworth photographer, was in our city last week, taking the place of Mr. Barnett of O'Neill, who contemplates selling his building here or leasing to Mr. Phelps.

Bertha Schneider, a 16 year old girl, died of diabetes north of Crookston Tuesday. She had been sick for some time. The funeral was held yesterday. The family came from the eastern part of the state a couple of years ago.

The railroad company is putting up ice and have a big force of men and teams at work and are hauling ice by the train load. It was necessary to rebuild the old ice track or chute leading from Lake Minnechadua to the top of the hill.

Mrs. John Stedifor returned yesterday from Porto Rico and prefers the northern climate. Her husband is wagon boss for the government and formerly was stationed at Ft. Niobrara, but went to Porto Rico last October when the fort was abandoned. It is expected he will also return soon.

All are invited to the ladies aid 15c supper at Mrs. Northrop's next Tuesday evening.

Mrs. J. C. Pettijohn of Long Pine is visiting her daughter, Miss Laura and with friends in our Miss Florence visited in the city last week.

Al Webb is clerking in D. Stinard's clothing store on account of illness in the latter's family which requires Mr. Stinard to be absent from the store.

The week of prayer is being observed this week in union meeting alternating between the Presbyterian and M. E. churches, conducted by Rev. Connell at the former and by Rev. Beale at the latter place.

Geo. Miller came in from Chesterfield last week and tells us that the hay flats are so covered with ice that he was looking for blacksmiths to shoe 500 head of cattle so they could stand up to eat hay. Cows would be awkward on skates he thinks and it is necessary to haul hay to the sand hills for them. There is more ice than formerly this year.

All Negro Soldiers to Go to the Philippines—Other Troops Ordered Also.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 5.—The Ninth and Tenth cavalry and the Twenty-fifth infantry, including all the negro soldiers in the regular army in this country, have been ordered to prepare for service in the Philippines, and will sail at different times between March 5 and June 5 of this year. The only other regiment composed of negroes, the Twenty-fourth infantry, is now doing service in the Philippines.

Other troops ordered to the Philippines are the Sixth cavalry and the Eighteenth, Twenty-sixth, Twenty-ninth and Thirtieth infantry.

The troops which will be relieved by the sending of these new regiments will be the Fourth, Seventh and Eighth cavalry and the Eighteenth, Thirteenth, Fifteenth, Sixteenth and Nineteenth infantry.—World-Herald.

We will begin the new year, we think, better equipped for handling our trade. Our lines of goods will be selected with the greatest care. Prices will be the lowest possible for first class merchandise. We thank all our customers for their valuable patronage in the past and trust you will continue to favor us with your business. Wishing you one and all a prosperous and Happy New Year, we are very truly yours,
