The Modesty of Women

Naturally makes them shrink from the indelicate questions, the obnoxious examinations, and unpleasant local treatments, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women. Yet, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than let the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the annovance and shame for nothing. Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription write in appreciation of the cure which dispendes why the examinations and local treatments. There is no other medicine so sure and safe for delicate women as "Favorite Prescription," It cures debilitating drains, irregularity and Temale weakness. It always helps. It almost always cures. It is strictly nonalcoholic, non - secret, all its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper; contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal root entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those most eminent in the several schools of medical practice. Some of these numerous and strongest of professional endorsements of its ingredients. will be found in a pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of KNOWN COMPOSITION. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. If sick consult the Doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held sacredly confidential. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate and regulate stomach, liver and bowels.

Borax is a aseful thing to have in the kitchen. Add a little to the water when boiling out enameled saucepans and it will help to cleanse them. If added to the water dish-clothes are washed in it will help to keep them a nice color.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed. Deafness is the result, and

Start to Redeem Pledges.

Members of the legislature started n Tuesday morning to redeem their pledges to the people by the introducform. In the senate, Root of Cass, introduced two bills defining the duties of the state railway commission and fixing the salaries of the members, while in the house among the very important bills introduced were the following: For the taxation of railroad terminals for municipal purposes, by Clark of Douglas; a bill for a state primary, by Dodge of Douglas; an anti-lobbyists bill fixing a penalty of a fine or jail sentence, by Jenison of Clay; an anti-lobbyists bill, by Shubert of Richardson; a 2-cent passenger rate; a bill providing that a freight train carrying passengers should not run more than an hour behind the schedule; a bill to compel telephone companies to connect their lines; a resolution to request the attorney general to bring suit to enforce the provisions of the maximum freight rate law; a resolution by Harrison to request the attorney general to bring quo warranto proceedings in the supreme court to test the constitutionality of the adoption of the amendment to the constitution providing for the state railroad commission.

In the senate Joe Burns, of Lancaster got a chance to orate when Wilsey of Frontier introduced a resolution providing a penalty of a jail sentence for lobbying. Burns bitterly opposed the resolution and it went over for one day. King of Polk thought the measure too drastic. Committees were named in both houses.

Dodge Introduces Primary Bill.

What is considered one of the most important measures introduced is the state primary bill, by Dodge of Douglas. It is the same measure introduced two years ago and later amended to apply to Douglas county alone, and became what was known as the Dodge primary law. The bill contains the original provisions for a statewide direct primary and does away with conventions of every sort, save when new parties are formed or when special elections are held. It also provides for the registration of voters on the state insurance department-Provid-

CONGRESS The Senate was not in session Friday. The "omnibus" claims bill, so-called, carrying appropriations for claims under the Bowman and Tucker acts, and miscellaneous claims on which favorable reports have been made by the war claims committee, was before the House, and for nearly five hours the merits of the measure were exploited. Speaker Cannon announced the appointment of Engelbright of California to a place on the committee on mines and mining, vice Williamson of Oregon, removed. The Speaker based action on the ground that Williamson had failed to attend a single session of the Fifty-ninth Congress. He has been convicted of participation in land frauds in Oregon.

The Brownsville affair occupied most of the time in the Senate Monday, the principal discussion being on a resolution offered by Senator Lodge providing for an investigation and by silence conceding the authority of the President to take the action he did in dismissing colored soldiers. Senator Gearin made an address on the Japanese question, advocating a resolution directing negotiations for a revision of the treaty with Japan. The House passed a bill providing for a judicial review of orders excluding persons from the use of United States mail facilities. A day in February was set apart for eulogies on the life and public service of Rockwood Hoar, late member for the Third Massachusetts District.

The Senate occupied itself Tuesday in discussing to a more limited extent the unusual Brownsville affray. Senator Daniel of Virginia made a speech in support of the President's action. Senator Foraker said that other speeches were to be made and indicated that he would defer closing the argument he began until a later date. Senator Overman of North Carolina spoke in opposition to the proposed federal child labor laws, his opposition being based on the broad ground of State rights. The bill limiting the hours of service of railway employes, which is the "unfinished business," was discussed New England are paying increased wages for an hour. The House began consideration of the military appropriation bill. Chairman Hull began general debate by a comprehensive statement of the contents of the army budget, which carries $2,-500,000 more than last year. Other speeches were by Mr. Slayden of Texas on his bill to discontinue the enlistment of negroes in the army; by Mr. Zenor of Indiana, against the ship subsidy bill. and by Mr. Gaines of Tennessee, who spoke in commemoration of the ninetysecond anniversary of the battle of New

Bashful Attendants.

The man from Arizona was taking his first view of Central Park and its environs. One thing seemed to rouse in him mingled interest and scorn. It was the sight of four or five young women on horseback, each followed at a respectful distance by a groom.

"Those fellows must be a bashful lot," said the man from Arizona, contemptuously, as a fifth young woman passed by, her attendant groom well in the rear. "I don't blame the girls for not throwing 'em so much as a look over the shoulder. I wouldn't in their place."

"There goes another couple with as much as eight rods between," he added, after a moment's silence. "I tell you, they ought to see the way we do it out in Arizona! We may be behind in some things, but I never saw a fellow out there that hadn't got spunk enough to ride up abreast of his girl when he'd had grit to invite her out."

Shot at Lobbyists.

The question of dealing with lobbyists was precipitated in the senate at the morning session by Wilsey, of Frontier, who introduced this resolution:

Whereas, Lobbying is a menace to legislation and absolutely indefensible, therefore be it

Resolved, That any person frequenting that part of the state house under the jurisdiction of the senate without apparent occupation may be arrested by order of the senate and brought before the bar of the senate, questioned under oath as to his occupation, salary and purpose. Other testimony may be employed and, if it be found that such persons are trying to influence members either for or against any measure pending in this senate, they shall be confined in jail until after the session closes.

Resolved further, That if any officer or employe of the senate shall try to influence any member for or against any measure, he may be tried before a committee appointed for that purpose and if found guilty shall be discharged from the service. Provided, however, that nothing in this resoluion shall prohibit any man or corporation, by themselves or their attorney, from appearing before any proper committee where any measure is pending, when such committee is in session, and present their side of said question in a gentlemanly manner.

After considerable discussion action on the bill was postponed one day.
