VALENTINE, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1907.

NUMBER 5

Tools of Honor

We wish to call your attention to our extensive line of "Keen Kutter" tools. We carry at all times a complete line of carpenter tools, including the best of everything in hammers, saws, planes, hatchets, auger bits, bit braces, squares, draw knives, chisels, files, etc. In fact everything that an up to date carpenter will need. Try one of our "Keen Kutter" axes or forks. They are tempered right, hung right, and made right. Always buy a "Keen Kutter" pocket knife. We also have the exclusive sale of "Manard" spades and shovels. Their are many imitations of these goods. Always watch the label and accept nothing but a "Manard" and profit thereby. Each and every article is thoroughly guaranteed by us and backed by the makers. "The recollection of quality remains long after the price is forgotten."

Talk of the Town.

W. F. A. Meltendorf makes an elaborate change in his ad this week. Read it.

John Ferstl handles all kinds of fruit and shade trees, small fruit, shrubs and flowers. 5

Rev. Magil of Crookston was in Valentine a few hours Saturday, having some dental work done.

The flashlight picture drew a large crowd to the skating rink Tuesday night. Two pictures were taken by Capt. Shaw.

Dr. Shipperd, dentist from Ainsworth, will be in Valentine Feb. 19 to 20 at the Valentine House prepared to do dental work. 4-2

Perry Swearinger, the "horseman", called at our office Tuesday to get a whip. He brought a load of corn to town with him which he sold to G. Carlson.

Captain Houston writes to Rev. C. E. Connell, pastor of the M. E. church, that the Lord gave them a wonderful blessing in the meeting in Forest City, Ill., which closed Jan. 31st.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Swain of Hay Springs, Neb., are here on a visit to H. B. Swain of Ragged Top. The two brothers had not met before in twelve years.—Deadwood Telegram.

There will be a silver medal contest given by five young lady contestants Saturday evening, Feb. 23. Good program, good music. Admission 10c. Further announcements next week.

A committee of ladies have been visiting the homes of the community the past week extending personal invitations to every family in town to attend the avangelistic meetings at the M. E. church Feb. 24th.

John Jaquins and his mother were up from Sparks Monday, doing some trading and bidding good by to their old friends and acquaintances before leaving for Gretna, Neb., where they have rented a farm. Their sale last Thursday was well attended and everything sold at top prices.

Considerable interest is being shown in the prayer meetings which have been held for the past two weeks preparatory to the evangelistic meeting to be held in the M. E. church Feb. 24th. The prayer meetings will be continued next week and announcements of places will be made from the pulpits of the different churches next Sabbath. Watch for the announcements and plan to attend the meetings.

The supreme court yesterday (last Saturday) finally dismissed the cases against Chauncey Dewey, the millionaire ranchman, and his cowboys, Clyde Wilson and W. J. McBride, charged with taking part in the killing of the Berry family in western Kansas in 1903.—World-Herald.

N. A. Bullis returned Monday from Sturgis, S. D., and reported that he and his nephew had bought a stock of hardware at that place and had taken possession Monday morning. John Bullis will remain in charge until his uncle can move his family to Sturgis. John expects to move his family as soon as his uncle gets located.

Thomas McClean of Brownlee was in town Tuesday on business. As usual, when he comes to our city, he made this office a friendly call. Mr. McClean informs us that hay is getting scarce and that he intends to unload a car or two of corn at Woodlake soon which he will freight out and feed to his large herd of cattle.

In attempting to ford a stream, swollen by water from the sudden thaw, former State Senator Frank Currie and J. Ulrich of Bradshaw were almost drowned, Saturday afternoon. They tried to cross in a buggy. The horses lost their footing, and the two men jumped from the rig and swam to shore. The horses were found dead today, several miles down the stream.—Omaha Daily News.

We sadly regret to announce the death of Wm. Allen at his home near Sparks on Feb. 2, 1907, after an illness of about one month of pneumonia. Mr. Allen was born in Green county, Kentucky, Dec. 25, 1841, being 66 years, one month and 6 days old at his death. At the beginning of the Civil war he enlisted in the 116th Illinois Reg., Co. E, was in the battle of Gettysburg and in the march through Georgia. In 1871 he was married to Miss Jennie Swager of Pawnee county, Neb. He leaves a wife and five children to mourn his death. The children are Mrs. A. Haley, Mrs. John Helenbolt, William, Richard and Edward Allen. The remains were laid to rest in Sparks cemetery.
