 by the Woodlake Cornet Band in Honey's hall, Woodlake, Nebr., Friday evening, March 29. Admission will be 25 and 15 cents.

Geo. A. Camm ran out of water this week at his farm north of town and is driving to the creek to water his stock and has lost one of his yearlings in the mire.

A. E. Butler, special agent of the Farmers Mutual Insurance Co. of Lincoln, spent the past week with the local agent I. M. Rice writing insurance for the farmers.

John F. Peterson, plumber, who is employed by the Red Front Merc. Co., has just completed putting in a complete air pressure water works system for M. House on North Table.

John Bullis came down from Sturgis, S. D., yesterday where he and his uncle have gone in the hardware business and is making preparations to move his family to their new home.

V. Northrop and family will soon be residents of Valentine, he having been transferred from Woodlake to Valentine as operator. They will reside in the Mrs.
 E. Bristol house.

Rasmus Anderson returned last night from a four months visit in Denmark. He weighs 25 pounds more than when he went and is looking real well. He says the sea was rough returning.

The evangelistic meetings closed at the M. E. church Sunday night.
 Several converts resulted from the meetings. Capt. Houston went to O'Neill from here and is holding meetings there this week.

Monday evening the people's ticket nominated W. A. Pettycrew, Dr. H. Dailey and L. N. Layport candidates for village trustees to be voted for at the coming village election. These men are capable.
 They are honest and they are worthy. It gives us pleasure to recommend such men and we know if they are elected they will do something for the city's good.
 They ought to be elected.

Frank and Wm. Grooms were in our city yesterday making arrangements for their mother's stock sale which takes place March 28. See large sale ad elsewhere

James Eggo, representing the Life Cocoa Co., of which he is vice president and general manager, is in our city today on business. We made Mr. Eggo's acquaintance some time ago and enjoyed meeting him again.

The Dickens' entertainment to be given in the opera house April 2, at 8:00 p. m. is under the auspices of the Presbyterian Aid Society for the benefit of its building fund. A very unique and enjoyable program is to be presented in which more than fifty persons participate.

Mrs. J. F. Young of Cody visited friends in our city several days last week while having some dental work done. She and Mr.
 Young have just returned from a visit of several weeks with relatives in different eastern states. They first went to the lumbermen's convention at Lincoln and going from there to Kansas City and Independence where Mrs. Young's sister lives near the church of the Latter Day Saints. From there to St. Louis, Mo., Louisville, Ky., Ashville, N. C., and from there they went down to old St. Agustine, the oldest town in the U. S., and then to Jackson, Fla., where they spent several days at each place. Mrs. Young is very observing and gave us a splendid account of the people and customs and people in the far east and south. Numerous other places of interest were visited and yet Mrs.
 Young comes back well contented with Cherry county.

Penbrook Quills.

Isaac Jones of Sholes, Nebr., is looking after his interest in Cherry county.

Jimmie Hutchison was selling beef in this neighborhood last week.

Chas. Peddicord has moved onto his homestead south of Simeon.

D. E. Burdick recently purchased a new set of harness.

Mrs. Effie Klein and daughter Rosa came up to Penbrook Sunday school last Sunday.

Al Whetstone has rented his place to Mr. Spraggins and has bought a place near Woodlake in order to have better school facilities. He moves this week.

W. A. Parker of Woodlake was chatting friends as he passed thru this neighborhood.

Frank Grooms called at Penbrook Saturday afternoon. He put the feet of Mr. Hittle's team in good order. Mr. Hittle has reached that time of life when he can't "wrestle" with his big horses and greatly appreciates the kindness of the neighbor boys.

Mrs. John Hittle and Miss Zittie Hamar scrubbed the school house, and Charlie and Dellie Burdick put up hitching posts last Friday.

With due deference to Captain Crawford's genius and Prof. Watson's learning, Eagle would suggest that a baby's dimples are not dependent on laughter; that Prof.
 Watson take a careful look, at the next dimpled baby he meets, and note the dimples even on one little hand; that were the "laughing baby" a dimpled little "coon" Captain Crawford might revise his adjectives. Anyway, Eagle's admiration is reserved for the "lovely baby."

Do not fail to read our state president's letter in the Union Worker, showing forth with what indifference "righteous bills" are dealt with in the legislature. Then read the "no license arguments."

The county president went to Cody last night and will stop at Kilgore and Crookston on return trip to arrange dates for Mrs.
 Simmons and talk up county convention work. Mrs. Moon will meet her at Crookston on Saturday and help in holding a meeting there.

We are expecting Mrs. Simmons to begin her work in Cherry county early in April.

You see Mrs. Nasbitt keeps up her "war cry" dues! dues! Every local union must take up the echo, Valentine not excluded.

The Nebraska liquor trade is rejoicing over the defeat of the county option bill, but never mind "they who laugh last, laugh best."

The "walls of Jericho" will come down by and by. Only let us "be strong and very courageous," given to prayer; then by persistent efforts, working with a will, trusting in God, the victory will come.

Supt. Press Work.

The Juniors brought their profits of the invested 10 cents to the League last Sunday. Twenty-one children took 10 cents from the treasury and invested the same, increasing the amount from time to time. A number doubled theirs ten-fold and more, and Kittie Kelley broke the record by returning hers one hundred-fold. The whole amount realized from the $2.10 invested was $26.35. The Junior League classes will be busy now for several weeks with their examinations. We urge a regular attendance.
