Chas. Gasson has put down a brick sidewalk in front of his lot next to the DEMOCRAT office.

Wallace Thackrey killed two rattle snakes this week near the old picnic ground west of town.

Grant Boyer is more than usually rushed this year as a carpenter having more work than he can do.

The Hobbs brothers of Simeon were in town making final proof yesterday. J. S. Carr was one of their witnesses.

Wm. and A. L. Gillaspie and Geo. Tellier of Newton were in town the first of the week on business settling up the estate of R. F. Gillaspie deceased.

Dave Hanna and Dave Hancock of Wood Lake were in town Monday. Mr. Hanna says the hay valleys and lakes are fuller of water this year than ever before.

Mrs. J. R. Ayers returned Sunday night from Atlantic Ga. where she has been the past 2 months. Mr. Ayers met Mrs. Ayres at Manilla Iowa where they visited relatives a few days before returning home.

Miss Leta Stetter returned Tuesday from Dewitt where she has been teaching school the past year. We understand that Miss Stetter has been employed to teach the 12th grade at McCook the following year at a good salary.

Mrs. Fannie Moore and son Leo of Cody are visiting relatives and friends in Valentine the past week returning yesterday. Mrs. Moore is a sister to Mrs. C. E. Connell and formerly lived in Valentine doing dress making for a number of years.

Born to Mr. & Mrs. D. M. Sears Sunday May 20 a baby girl at the residence of Mrs. Shore where Mrs. Sears had been staying for several days. Mr. Sears came in last Saturday and the following day took his family home to their ranch south of Kennedy.

J. M. Ralya had several horses badly scorched and burnt in the recent prairie fire which passed through that section of the country but they are getting better with careful treatment. Everybody was out fighting fire which was set from lightning in five different places in that country.

Fritz Porath Sr. had the misfortune last Thursday while running a corn sheller, to break his right arm. The handle struck his arm after he had let go. He came to town to have it set and Monday he and Mrs. Porath were in town to have the doctor dress his arm. He seems to be getting along all right.

Our friend Geo. D. Huggins of Norden was in town a couple of days the past week and found time to call at our office for a friendly chat. Mr. Huggins is a checker player and some time this summer expects to play us a game but he wants Jim McLean to play first for the championship and then he says he will play the champion.

H. B. Clapp, a Simeon ranchman was in town Monday and called at our office for a few words of derogatory cheer and tell us about a wolf down there that jumped onto a yearling belonging to Mr. Young and bit a piece out of its back and killed it last Saturday. A wolf hunt was organized Sunday and they rode all over the hills but failed to find the wolf.

Summer Dress Goods

The warm days of June ought to start you to thinking about summer goods. If they don't may be we can by offering a line of 40c, 35c and 30c, Goods at 25c.

These goods range in a variety of popular patterns and colors including browns, tans and grays and comprise the mohairs, lawns and the light weight wool effect goods. We are also showing a pretty line of dotted swisses and batistes at prices ranging from 12c to 25c, PER YD.

We have just received new patterns in the grays and checked goods. Look them over.

The M. W. of A. of Crookston will give a dance in their Hall Friday night June 14, 1907 and invite everybody to come.

We saw an item in the Chadron Journal stating that Mayor Dahman's daughter Miss Ruth would be married Wednesday. (yesterday.)

A large number of Valentine people went out to the lakes the past week to fish for bass. The fishing has been good but we suppose some will have poor luck.

J. C. Brown, a new settler formerly from Salina, Kansas, and his two brothers Thomas and John were in town Monday on business and made our office a friendly business call. Mr. Brown's brothers are looking for land.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Sparks returned from Seattle, Wash. Monday and expect to make their home here. Mr. Sparks did not enjoy good health in the west and he probably thinks Valentine looks better to him than he thought when he moved away last fall.

Last Sunday the M. W. A. lodge met at 2:30 at Fraternal Hall and from there proceeded to the cemetery marching two and two, led by their Woodmen team in uniform and bearing Woodmen badges and banner. Appropriate ceremonies were held at the grave of Col. F. J. Davenport a former member of the lodge conducted by Rev. Beale of the Presbyterian church, who is now a member of our lodge. A beautiful wreath was placed on the grave and another upon the grave of August J. Helzer.
