Personally I know how Supt. Mc-Brien has faith in the normals and in you. Largely through his efforts have the junior normals been made a continuing and enlarged feature of our educational system. His part, for the present, has been p erformed. Whether the remaining portions of his plans will be successful depends entirely upon the spirit and the ability of those actively interested and engaged in the summer work-upon the spirit and the ability of the faculty and the attendants.

With the most cordial greetings Sheridan, Dawes and Keya and a wish for a pleasant acquaintance during the session of the normal and afterward, I am,

The Chicago Glee Club will be at the Valentine opera house June 18. The Chicago Glee Club, without male quartets this country has ever produced. The fact that each voice is peculiarly adapted to the part it assumes and that the membership of the club has remained for over five years unchanged, combine to produce this high degree of excelwish certificates to teach by Sep- lence. The volume of the voices is such as to fill the the largest auditorium, pianissimo passages are so fine and harmonious as to hold the audience in breathless attention. The repertoire of the club is very extensive and comprises the best of all classes of music written for male voices. Many of the selections used by the club have been written or arranged especially for it,

The Trombone Quartet, first introduced to the Lyceum by the Chicago Glee Club, and used only by them, is one of the most artistic and pleasing novelties before the public. The trombone is conceded to be the "king" of wind instruments, and the effect produced by the four quite approaches in sweetness and volume the quality and power of the pipe-organ. With these instruments, supplementing the male quartet, the club is able to present a varied and interesting evening.
