Talk of the Town.

Try Kazda's barber shop. tf
Miss Orab Britton has gone to her former home at Ravenna for a visit.

E. C. Seovel and wife are spending their vacation in the city as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lockwood.

Mrs. Frank Brayton and son Donald went down to Ainsworth last Friday to visit friends and take the boy to see the circus.

Rev. Beale will be absent from his pulpit two weeks for his vacation, during which time he will go out in the hay field with Arthur Sherman.

J. F. Geyer had a duroc pig shipped up from Neligh last Saturday and is going into the thorough hog business. He says they do well here.

L. C. Sparks and Mrs. Frances Harden went down to Lincoln to attend the state gold medal speaking contest where the latter competes for the medal.

The Epworth League will give an ice cream social at the home of J. C. Northrop on Friday evening of this week. Everybody come and have a good time.

C. A. Austin, Nels Austin and John Thompson, with their respective families, left last week for the western coast to join H. S. Savage who went last fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Bivens and son Len of the Red Front, and Del Sherman departed Saturday night for Rawlins, Wyo., to visit with C. R. Watson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Carter went back to their home near Cody last Friday after attending to the settling up of the Mrs. Shore estate. Mr. Carter was made the executor of the will.

Ainsworth and Atkinson played a good game of ball Tuesday at Ainsworth, resulting in a score of 5 to 0 in favor of Ainsworth. Several Valentine people went down to see the game.

Mrs. Fred Ralya returned yesterday from a month's visit in Sioux City. Her daughter, Mrs. Sterling, met her at Valentine and drove out to their ranch on the Snake, 25 miles from town.

Maynard Bishop, the Valentine ball player has started a flour and feed store in the building recently occupied by Mrs. Carrie Hilsinger as a restaurant and opposite the Eagle livery stable. Maynard is a nice fellow and we wish him success.

Martin Keever, wife and daughter leave this morning for Decatur county, Kan., after a ten days visit with Webster Wertz and wife of Crookston. Mr. Wertz is a son-in-law of Mr. Keever. They intended leaving yesterday morning, but, in flagging the train at Crookston, the engineer failed to stop.

Last Sunday the married men played the boys of the base ball nine on the new ball ground south of town, resulting in a score of 17 to 14 in favor of the married men. They all had a good time. Some of the winning team were not married but they went into the game to fill out with as much enthusiasm as if they were really married. Next Sunday the East Side will play the West Side. It will be a great game.

Boys Cash Suit Sale

For the past week we have been conducting a very successful Boys' Suit Sale. We have put on sale a boy's two-piece double breasted suit, good weight and suitable for school wear, sizes ranging from 5 to 15 years of age. This suit could not be purchased anywhere for less than $3.00, not even from a catalogue house, but as a special inducement for trade during the dull season of the year, and to give you advantage of a good cash bargain, we offer you this exceptional value at a Cash price of $1.75.

See the display of these suits in our window.

Lost or Stolen—White and tan pointer dog, right hind leg has been broken. Last seen at Valentine July 4th. $5.00 reward will be paid for information leading to his recovery.

W. F. A. MELTENDORFF.

James Laules was in town last Saturday and was looking as well as usual. He says he has the finest crop this year that he ever raised in the county and he has been here 20 years. He thinks Cherry county is all right and you couldn't buy his farm for the price farms are being sold at around Valentine.

A meeting will be held at the county judge's office Friday evening, Aug. 16, for the purpose of discussing the utility and possibility of a public library association of Valentine, organized on lines usually adopted for such associations. Many have signified their interest in the matter. Everybody, both ladies and gentlemen, are invited to attend this meeting and give your views.
