Talk of the Town.

Rev. A. T. Carpenter of Johnson was in Valentine between trains last Friday evening.

Rev. John Thackrey came Tuesday evening from Kansas City to visit with his brothers and sisters here.

Rev. J. B. Carns, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, will occupy the M. E. pulpit next Sunday morning and evening. Everybody come out and hear him.

Rev. C. E. Connell started Tuesday for the M. E. Annual Conference which meets in Chadron today. Mrs. Connell and children are spending the week with friends at Crookston.

Miss May VanBuskirk, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Connell, the past few weeks, left Tuesday evening for Merriman, where she will leave for Idaho in a few weeks.

Mrs. E. Breuklander returned from Cherokee, Iowa, Tuesday morning, accompanied by her daughter May. The numerous friends of Miss May will be glad to have her among them again.

Mrs. Razez, mother of Mrs. P. F. Simons, returned from Joplin, Mo., last week. She has been staying with her daughter, Mrs. J. P. Hunt, for several years. We understand Mr. Hunt has sold his drug store in Joplin.

A further meeting to form a public library association will be held at the county judge's office Friday evening of this week, at which time the committee on constitution and by-laws will report. All are invited to attend.

A game of base ball Sunday between Valentine and Thacher resulted in a score of 23 to 9 favor of Valentine. The Thacher boys played pretty well at the bat but were not so good in the field, perhaps from want of practice, hence Valentine's big score.

The lightning struck the home of Mrs. Hubbard last Wednesday and tore its way down the chimney, taking a part of the plastering and splintering some of the wood work. Mrs. Hubbard was shocked but not seriously injured. She happened to be sitting near the chimney where the lightning struck.

The Thackrey brothers and sisters are having a reunion of the family this week at the homes of J. E. Thackrey and C. S. Reece. Sam, the oldest brother, and Mrs. Sadie Harris came Sunday night; Miss Frances Thackrey came down from Rosebud Tuesday; Rev. John Thackrey came Tuesday night. Frank and Will were expected Tuesday night but failed to come. Mrs. Mary Wiseman was also expected. Those who have come have gone out to C. S. Reece's.

J. E. Thackrey drove in from the E. Stillwell place Sunday to meet his brothers and sisters and to haul a load of lumber and building material out for Mr. Stillwell, who is building a fram house, and thinks that if Hackberry lake continues to rise he'll have an ark that will float. He has been driven out of two sod houses already by the rise of water and this time he is building his house three stories high so that he can move up story at a time if the water should come up. Mr. Thackrey is doing the carpenter work.

Ice cream will be served Saturday afternoon and evening at Bethel hall by W. C. T. U. ladies. They desire the patronage of the public.

The air ship scheduled to make daily flights at the state fair, Sept. 2-6 will consume three tons of sulphuric acid and three tons of iron filings during the five days of the fair. Every visitor will have an opportunity to see this 20th century invention at close range on the fair grounds.

A game of base ball played between the east and west sides of Main street last Thursday resulted in a score of 13 to 9 in favor of the east side, but Mr. Jackson, who was umpiring the game, claims to have made a mistake in declaring the west side out when all bases were full and the batter fanned out with no run. The batter only was out Mr. Jackson says but the mistake may have made little or no difference in the score yet might have evened up with a good batter to run in and bring the three in on bases.

Samuel I. Thackrey of Kansas City, Kan., and sister, Mrs. Sadie Harris of Manhattan, Kan., arrived Sunday night for a visit with relatives in Cherry county. Sam Thackrey is a brother of J. E. Thackrey and the Thackrey sisters and is the father of Miss Sadie Thackrey who has been teaching school the past three years in our county. Sam was formerly a school teacher in Riley county, Kan., but for fourteen years past has been a railway mail clerk on the Rock Island and his run is now between Kansas City and Colorado Springs.
