John Hittle has sold his cattle to W. L. Klingaman who has purchased over 500 head in this section this summer and fall. Prices are exceptionally good: yearlings $10 to $20, two-year-olds $25 to $30, fat cows $25 to $30.

My commission expires February 19, 1912.

In the District Court of Cherry County, Nebraska.

In the matter of the petition of Edward Satterlee, administrator of the estate of Robert F. Gillispie, deceased, for license to sell real estate.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE.

Now, on this 10th day of September, 1907, came on for hearing upon the petition under oath of Edward Satterlee, administrator of the estate of Robert F. Gillispie, deceased, praying for a license to sell the following described real estate of the said Robert F. Gillispie, deceased, to-wit: Section 31, Township 25, and the North Half of the Northeast Quarter of Section 31, Township 25, and the Southeast Quarter of Section 31, Township 25, Range 22 in Cherry County, Nebraska, or a sufficient amount thereof to bring a sum necessary for the purpose of paying the debts allowed against said estate, and the costs of administration and the costs of this proceeding for the reason that there is not a sufficient amount of personal property in the possession of said administrator belonging to said estate to pay said debts, allowances and costs.

It is therefore ordered that all persons interested in said estate appear before me at Chambers in the Village of Rushville, Sheridan County, Nebraska, on the 30th day of October, 1907, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m., to show cause, if any there be, why a license should not be granted to said Edward Satterlee, administrator, to sell said above described real estate of said decedent as shall be necessary to pay said debts and expenses.

It is further ordered that a copy of this order be served upon all persons interested in said estate by causing the same to be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Valentine Democrat, a newspaper published and published in said county of Cherry.

W. H. WESTDYER,
