VELIE BUGGIES AND SPRING WAGONS

A Few of the good points:

All wheels, poles, reaches and axles are made from hickory stock. All open head springs 38 inches long and oil tempered. All bolts, clips, bailey hangers, body loops and fifth wheels are made from the best quality of wrought iron. Special channel irons on reaches. Twenty springs in all buggy cushions and twenty-four springs in all spring wagon cushions! Nothing but best of cloth, leather and paint used.

Col. Bryan's Illustrated Book ation of a wonderfully interesting of Travel.

Col. Bryan's hold on the popular mind finds striking illustration in the success of his new book, "The Old World and Its Ways." It recounts and profusely fluxtrates his recent journey around the world. We are advised that issue." in the short period of 90 days at has gone through three large editions aggregating 25,000 copies and that the demand for it exceeds that for any book published for the subscription trade since the period of "Grant's Memcirs." In the latter case the demand for the book was strengthened by a just and all-pervading feeling of must not be construed as a forecast sympathy for a great soldier. struggling against the dread combination of death and poverty, and buoyed by the heroic purpose to recoup his fortunes, and provide for his family.

Col. Bryan's book, with like success, depends upon no sympathetic element for its strength, but it has on the part of the people the enduring feeling of personal confidence in the great moral and intellectual integrity of its author. It has an equally pronounced admiration for his brilliant abilities. and the untiring energy that enabled him to cover the world in his noted tour-and to photograph and describe it in his inimitable way. Without official place Col. Bryan is everywhere regarded, at home and abroad, as a vital force in American affairs. As a student only) was 4.6 inches on 10, 1901. of men and of government, and of governmental conditions, his observations and conclusions profoundly interest the people. Hence the great sale of his book, descriptive of men and things seen during his noted tour around the world and through the Nations. It is vitalized by 251 artistic engravings, from photographs taken by him or under his supervision, representing men, places and things that interested him and that specially interest every American read-
