A most popular coal, now on the market, is the Hudson lump or nut coal, from Hudson, Wyo.
Frank Fischer carries this coal and sells it at $8.20 and $8 a ton. 50

James H. Quigley and R. M.
Faddis returned Thursday evening from a week's trip on the reservation looking after their cattle interests. They say cattle never looked better at this time of year.

John Bachelor drove in from his ranch Saturday to spend Xmas with his family. He reports that the range cattle are in good shape and that from present indications there will be plenty of hay this winter.

Mrs. Mary Cross, the only sister of our townsman, J. R. Ayers, arrived in our city Sunday night and is visiting. She had been to Ocean Park, Cal., visiting relatives and friends, and is enroute to her home in Oelwein, Ia.

The opera house new maple floor has been completed and was opened Christmas Day for a skating rink, and in the evening Fischer's orchestra gave an invitation dance which was conceded to be a grand success. Supper was served at the Valentine house.

Christmas entertainments were given Christmas eve by the Presbyterian and Methodist Sunday Schools. Large crowds attended both programs and enjoyed them immensely. The Methodists were handicapped in that they had to use Bethel hall, the church being temporarily closed while undergoing repairs.

Joe Herman's brother and wife were in a railroad wreck last week on the B. & M., while enroute here on a visit. The coach in which they were riding jumped the track up west while crossing the Platte but stayed on the ties right side up until it reached the embankment when it flopped upside down, rolling over into the ditch. Mrs. Herman was quite severely hurt and was taken down to Joe Herman's on a cot from the station upon arriving here.
Mr. Herman did not appear to be hurt, though it was a pretty bad scare and severe shaking up.
