Talk of the Town.

Try Kazda's barber shop. If D. A. Wishart was in town Friday.

Miss Glen Hoenig was ill a few days this week.

Charles Sparks spent Sunday with his wife at Neligh.

Mrs. W. D. Armstrong returned from Cody Tuesday.

Hon. Dave Hanna and daughter were in town Saturday.

Mr. McNamee of Woodlake was up last Saturday on business.

W. S. Jackson returned from Omaha and other points Saturday night.

Wesley Holsclaw, after being at home some time left for Chadron Monday night.

We invite you to call and inspect our new meat market.

L. H. Bauman.

Railroad officials were in town Tuesday getting things in line for the annual "ice making."

We forgot to mention last week that our old friend Wm. Gulick of Woodlake was in our town Tuesday of last week.

Ira Hewitt was up from Ainsworth Monday. It is rumored that he is contemplating putting in an electric light plant at Long Pine.

The Owl Saloon fixtures have been greatly improved with a new coat of varnish. The present manager has made many greatly needed improvements.

Bad Thunder, Fooled Eagle, Bad Hair and James Hawkins and their families, all Sioux Indians, returned to Rosebud and Pine Ridge this week after visiting the Omaha Indians.—Lyons Mirror.

Walter Kimmel, a 15 year old son of S. H. Kimmel of Rosebud, accidentally shot himself through the body last Saturday with a 22 rifle while unloading the magazine. Dr. Compton was sent for and reports the boy getting along nicely.

John Keeley returned home last week after an absence of several years. Carl Keeley also came home the first of the week from Lead City and is now working on the ice force. Carl was recently married at Lead to a Miss Mabel Stanton.

W. S. Jackson returned last Thursday night from Omaha where he had been taking a course in "Eckles School of Embalming," and, after finishing the course, passed an examination before the state board as a licensed embalmer. Mr. Jackson has been studying for this privilege the past year.

The new county officers, were ushered in and took the oath of office last Thursday, the only changes being that of Jas. Mone, commissioner from the west end, taking the place of Arthur Bowring; Clyde A. Rosseter succeeding P. F. Simons as sheriff, and P. H. Young succeeding E. C. Cole as assessor. Jas. Mone is down with a spell of the grip this week and is unable to meet with the commissioners this week. Mr. Young has been in town several days appointing his force of deputies.

John Porath and son were in town Tuesday and called to have us change his postoffice address in his tubular well advertisement in this paper to Burge, Nebr. Mr. Cavanaugh is the mail carrier to Riege and Burge, making the trip three times a week, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays and he delivers the mail to people along his route. John Melshaw is the postmaster at Riege and L. W. Parker is the Bagre P. M. Mr. Porath's mail comes from Burge on Mr. Cavanaugh's return trip. Mr. Porath says the people in the German settlement have been troubled with the grip the past couple of weeks but all have about recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. Church have moved out of her city.

Clyde Rosseter is off on a trip through the county on official business.

Mrs. Harms of O'Neill is in the city visiting her sister, Mrs. Val Nicholson.

The commissioners' proceedings will be published in this paper next week.

Another number of the lecture course takes place tonight in the opera house.

We have facilities for keeping our stock in first class condition.

If you want good fresh oysters in a hurry call up Baumann's meat market. Phone 88.

Dr. Meehan, osteopath, will be at the Valentine House from Monday morning until Saturday, evening each week. Consultation free.

A most popular coal, now on the market, is the Hudson lump or nut coal, from Hudson, Wyo. Frank Fischer carries this coal and sells it at $8.20 and $8 a ton.

Theodore Ewalt Spoo, the little child of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Spoo, who had been ill for a couple of weeks, died Friday morning, Jan. 3, 1908, of spinal trouble caused by an injury, it is supposed, from a fall some time previous. The funeral was held at the hotel Saturday evening and Sunday morning the parents, accompanied by Mrs. Spoo's mother who had recently come out from Lowden, Iowa, took the child back to their old home for interment at Lowden. Mr. and Mrs. Spoo remained with relatives there and will go to Davenport, Iowa before returning.

The A. O. U. W. and D. of H. held their annual reception Monday night and gave a banquet after their installation of officers. The ladies drill was said to be so far ahead of the men's lodge that some of the members felt ashamed, but, then, you know, the ladies always make these entertainments interesting. The peanut chase was one feature of the evening in getting people to throw off their reserve and enjoy a sociable time. The little girls sang a lullaby song with dolls in their arms. Mrs. Bivens sang a solo and the orchestra discoursed sweet strains that brought the lovers of dancing to their feet and the remainder of the evening was spent in social conversation and dancing after supper. Three members of the Crookston lodge, Paul Viertel, Webster Wertz and Elmer Ayers, brought down their charter and hereafter will be a part of this lodge. It was a jolly crowd that marked one more mile-stone of time in the history of the two lodges at Valentine.

L. H. Baumann has started a meat market in the building formerly occupied by Lottie and Obe Church as a grocery store under the opera house and began business last Friday. He has fitted up the front room for his shop and one of the other rooms to the north for rendering lard and making sausage, with full equipment for that business, and a gasoline engine to do the work. He has a huge refrigerator, big enough to cool a herd of cattle, will hold 20 beeves, a dozen hogs, a flock of chickens, school of fish, and room to burn in the sausage room. He has leased the Haley farm south of town for a slaughter yard and does his own butchering which saves a big margin in handling meat. Mr. Baumann has been to considerable expense in fitting up his shop and expects to purchase all kinds of stock in connection with his butcher business. He is not a stranger in our city, having been here considerably the past year buying stock, and starts in with considerable friendship and acquaintance among our people. He has as assistant L. T. Adams, formerly of Neligh, who is an experienced butcher and meat cutter.

Barney & Berry skates in all styles at Frank Fischer's. An ideal gift for anyone.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lewis, a girl, Jan. 11, 1908, at the home of Mrs. Lewis' parents at the Chicago hotel.

Mrs. McAlevy, Widow of the Late Samuel E. McAlevy of Kennedy, Dead.

Mrs. Nancy M. McAlevy died at Meridian, Idaho last Thursday morning, Jan. 9, 1907, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. B. Kline, where she had been making her home the past year.

Alex McAlevy and wife had gone out there from here about a month ago, expecting to visit there this winter, but at the death of his mother they returned, bringing her here to place beside her husband in Mount Hope cemetery.

Margaret Fleming was born in Pennsylvania Nov. 28, 1839. She was united in marriage with Samuel E. McAlevy Oct. 2, 1860 and in 1867 they with several children moved to Iowa and in 1888 came to Nebraska where they have made their home until the death of Mr. McAlevy Feb. 10, 1905, at Kennedy, Neb.

Mrs. McAlevy was the mother of 11 children, 6 sons and 5 girls. Two boys and a girl died in infancy and one son died in early manhood. Three sons and four daughters are yet living.

Mrs. McAlevy united with the Presbyterian church in early life and was highly esteemed by a wide circle of neighbors and acquaintances in Cherry county where the family lived for nearly a quarter of a century.

Don't forget our prices are always right if you come, send or call by phone, (88).
