Special meetings are being held at the Presbyterian church, conducted by Evangelist Rev. Wm. H. Kearns, D. D., of Beatrice.

Dr. Kearns possesses the personal advantaged of having been an active and successful paster, and of starting upon the work of his present appointment in the $10000 00 vigor of matured manhood. He started as overseer and evangelist the beginning of the new year. having received his appointment from the Presbyterian board to look after the interests of all Presbyterian churches in Nebraska under the care of the board, as well as to see to the occupying of new fields now demanding churches.

Therefore it behooves the citizens of Valentine to stand by this special effort of the great Board of a great church through Rev. Kearns, to place the congregation in our town on a firm basis financially and spiritually for fully performing its responsibility in building up the best interests of the town and community.

It is your enterprise and welfare is at stake.

Everyone knows that a town known for its church going qualities is a town where there is the least extortion in business, and the most safety for the young and the greatest comfort of all.

And the church-goer must be up to the proper standard.

Rev. Kearns is a magnetic speaker, easy and delightful to listen to and no one can fail to be encouraged and inspired to seek his life's noblest undertaking.

We took him over to the high school Wednesday morning where he urged the pupils to do their very utmost to reach the marks of Heaven's high calling.

Next Sabbath evening it is probable the church auditorium will be filled to overflowing, but many extra seats will be provided.

Next Tuesday, at the closing service, it is hoped the business places will be closed between 8 and 9 in order for all to attend.

Some topics yet to be spoken are "The Final Judgment," "The Second Coming of Christ" and "The Unpardonable Sin,"
