The parcel shower given Feb. 14, by Mrs. W. S. Jackson for Miss Claudia Wells, was a most delightful occasion. The rooms were appropriately decorated with cupids, hearts and valentines. Much pleasure and amusement was derived from the contents of the parcels and the accompanying sentiment. A few games of "hearts" furnished further entertainment, after which refreshments were served. About thirty guests were present, Mrs. Cole carrying off the first prize and Mrs. Robinson the consolation prize.

C. J. Rogers died at his home near Thacher Tuesday morning, Feb. 11, 1908, at the age of 73 years. He came to Cherry county from Iowa about 20 years ago and settled on the place where he lived at the time of his death, which was due to old age. He had been in his usual health and retired about 10 o'clock the evening previous to his death and passed away with only a slight struggle as he breathed his last which awakened his wife by his side and she attempted to revive him but he had departed this world. Nine children, five boys and four girls, besides his wife, also two brothers and several grand-children survive the deceased. The remains were interred in Mount Hope cemetery and the funeral conducted by Rev. Beale.

Genuine Tigers

We have on display in our window this week a bunch of genuine tigers, not the ordinary kind but the latest we could obtain from the famous establishment of Keith Bros. & Co., Chicago, Ill. Each one of these tigers carries a price card in plain red figures and is valued from $1.50 to $3.00, in any size you want. They are all the 1908 variety and present a pleasing and novel appearance which belongs only to this special kind of tiger. We guarantee perfect satisfaction to every purchaser of these new spring tigers and should there be any growl from either you or the tiger, we will gladly refund your money.

Take a look at them.
