

BRYAN SPEAKS

Rain or Shine

Have you heard him speak? You can if you will come to our store. He is speaking here every day on the

Genuine Edison Phonograph

To-day he speaks on
An Ideal Republic, The Tariff Question, The Railroad Question, Swollen Fortunes, and Six Other Favorite Subjects

William Jennings Bryan himself recently made Edison Records of his best speeches. When you hear these on an Edison Phonograph, you hear the real Bryan.

You get the full effect of his sonorous voice and his wonderful tricks of voice and manner. It is all so natural and life-like you are apt to find yourself applauding the speaker.

Crowds attend our free exhibition of the Bryan Records every day. Come today, as it's the talk of the town.

We sell a genuine Edison Phonograph complete for $25. Edison Records 35c each. They wear forever.

The eagle will scream at Higgin's grove July 4th.

John Helzer came back from the Rosebud agency Saturday.

Miss Estelle Nicholson has gone to Belle Fourche to visit friends.

Frank Mogle, Kemp Heath and two others of Cody were down Friday.

Celebrate the Fourth at all the little towns around Valentine. See big notices in this paper.

Adriens M. Newens gave a splendid lecture on "a visitor from Mars" Tuesday night.

Grover Cleveland died Wednesday morning at his home in Princeton, N. J., at the age of 71 past.

Pete Simons, the Sparks merchant, drove in today and told us to tell them that Sparks would celebrate.

Mrs. Olson and son Elmo have gone to Merriman to visit a sister. Miss May Holsclaw accompanied them.

Wm. Ballard and Charley Bennett, jr., were in town the first of the week, bringing in a bunch of horses.

Mrs. M. V. Nicholson and son Milton returned Sunday morning from their visit with relatives at Belle Fourche.

A. G. Shaw is having a man-hole built on the north side of his art gallery to get coal down to his furnace this winter.

Mrs. Geo. Cyphers and son Clarence, Mrs. Emma Guth and Billy Stewart went up to Rosebud agency yesterday.

Frank Brayton has been in Chicago the past week purchasing goods for the Red Front Merc. Co. and expects to visit relatives in Michigan before returning.

R. M. Faddis returned last week from an extensive trip through Texas, New Mexico and Nevada, where he has been buying cattle to place on the range here.

Crookston's merchants, Max E. Viertel and A. B. Overman, were down Tuesday and say they will have a big time there the Fourth. See program in this paper.

James C. Quigley, who graduated at Bellevue college two weeks ago, has returned home and is assisting County Assessor Young with his duties at the court house.

A. R. Bernard, wife and son of Des Moines, Iowa, have purchased the Valentine House of L. E. Garlock, taking possession yesterday. Mr. Bernard has secured a first-class cook and expects to run an up-to-date hotel and respectfully solicits a share of your patronage.

E. C. Bishop of York was in our city Tuesday looking over the political ground for his candidacy for state superintendent before the republican primaries. He has been engaged in school work at York for a number of years as superintendent of schools.

Triumph is the appropriate name of a new brew of beer which the Storz Brewing Co. of Omaha has just put on the market. The first of a series of advertisements appears in this issue. The design used throughout in their display is the Arch of Triumph which aptly emphasizes the name. We understand the triumph brand is Storz Brewing Co.'s, "crowning achievement in the art of brewing."

St. John's Church.

Services will be held Sunday, July 5, as follows:
Morning prayer and high celebration of the Holy Eucharist at 11 a. m.; evensong at 8 p. m.

A Safe, Simple System

The system of paying by check was devised by all men—for any man—for you. It is suited to the need of any business, either large or small. It makes no difference whether we pay out $10 or $10000 a month. A checking account will serve your needs.

Pay by check, the method puts system into your business and gives you a record of every transaction.

VALENTINE STATE BANK
VALENTINE, NEBR.

Valentine won the ball game today from Crawford 6 to 1.

Oliver Walcott returned last week from the state university where he has been taking a law course.

Valentine beat Bassett here last Friday 6 to 4. Pearl H. Davis, ex-county clerk of Rock county, umpired the game.

Mark D. Cyphers of Miss Charlotte I. Baron of Portland, Pa., were married at the home of the bride Wednesday June 10 '08.

Prof. Stoekdale's wife and daughter are here with him and have moved into Prof. Watson's residence where they will make their future home during the normal.

A man who gives his name as Frank Gardner tried to pass a check for $65 on Tom Hornby Tuesday evening, purporting to be given to Frank Hill by A. K. Wood, and which Gardiner claims to have taken in exchange for a horse. Gardner was arrested and detained here to await the arrival of Mr. Wood of the Rosebud reservation and who happened to be at the agency at the time and came down yesterday. At a preliminary hearing held yesterday Gardner waived and was bound over to the district court. Gardner had been held in the Rosebud jail 30 days for an attempted holdup, and after being sent off the agency, worked awhile for Jesse Brosius on north Table.
