27 3 COMMITTEE.

On the inside pages of this paper will be found the democratic platform, brief sketches of W. J.
Bryan and the democratic convention at Denver.

Allen Benson returned recently from a six months trip through the southern states and South America where he spent a pleasant winter and spring. He drove in from Arabia Saturday and spent Sunday in town. We enjoyed a pleasant afternoon hearing Allen tell of his experiences in South America.

M. P. Jordan was in town Monday and inserted a big advertisement in this paper for putting up 1,000 tons of hay for which he offers $1.65 per ton, and also offers to contract for baling and hauling the same to Arabia. This seems to be a good opening for parties having haying outfits and a summer's job awaits them which may last well into the fall. See his advertisement elsewhere in this paper.

A. M. Morrissey returned on the belated passenger Monday from Denver where he attended the democratic national convention as a delegate from the Sixth district of Nebraska. He reports an enjoyable time and gives a good account of the great convention which he says was very enthusiastic and harmonious throughout.
Mr. Morrissey is one of the committee selected to officially notify the vice president of his nomination.

Grant Boyer came down Tuesday from Cody where he has been building a house for W. H. Carter.
It is a good substantial building that will make a fine home when completed. It is being plastered now and Grant will go back to finish it up. The carpenter work was begun June 5th and we think the work has been pushed along to get ready for plastering so soon with only two helpers. Mr. Boyer is a good worker and does good work. We cheerfully recommend him.

A telegram announcing the death of Mrs. Mary McGuane at West Point Wednesday morning came as a shock to the relatives and friends at Valentine. Mrs. Mc-Guane is a step-mother to Mrs.
James Smith and Mrs. Bartley White. She had been making her home until about ten weeks ago with Mrs. Martin Christensen who is a daughter of Mrs. White, and went down to West Point to spend a few weeks. She was growing old and recently her health had not been very good but the folks had no notice of her illness recently. The funeral was held today at the Catholic church at 10:30.

Last Saturday L. E. Garlock, formerly proprietor of the Valentine House, purchased the Home Bakery business of Miss Wren Donoher and took possession immediately. The business was started in our city by E. H. Bohle several years ago and after conducting it for a couple of years sold to Miss Wren Donoher who has since conducted the business and enjoyed a large patronage. The Home Bakery has always been a popular place since the beginning and is the only all night restaurant in town. The Donoher sisters formerly conducted the hotel which bears their name and was known from Omaha to the Black Hills as a popular place to spend a Sunday or a few days visit while enjoying a vacation at Valentine.
Mr. Garlock expects to conduct the business or the Home Bakery along the same lines as it has been run in the past and we bespeak for him the good will and wishes of the public and assure them the same courteous treatment that has made the Home Bakery a popular place.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church is busy this week preparing to stage the remarkable comedy, "The Union Depot for a Day," some time next week. The cast includes most of the young people in town and promises to be one of the most laughable effects of the season.
The comedy is unique in its arrangement and will be something new in the usual routine of the presentation of such plays. Watch for further announcements.

Monday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Sparks the Hall street young ladies entertained in honor of the Misses Waterhouse at a lawn fete which was probably the most delightful social function ever given in this city.
The evening was perfect, and around the large and luxuriant lawn Japanese lanterns were strung. Rustic seats, chairs and rugs were placed in cozy nooks and every possible luxury was at the disposal of the guests who were about 70 in number. Punch was served throughout the evening and two little gypsy queens "who were especially imported from Egypt," revealed the future to the anxiety of some and the merriment of others. As the evening progressed ice cream and cake were served, following which were some pleasing dances on the wide porch, closing with ever charming Virginia Reel. The Hall street girls, and particularly Miss Wade, may feel pleased and gratified with the success of so delightful and entertainment.
