Commissioners' Proceedings.

Valentine, July 29, 1908.
Board of county commissioners met pursuant to adjournment. Present: G. E. Russell, chairman, and James Mone.

Board took up the matter of the application of A. B. Overman for a license to sell malt, spirituous and vinous liquors in Crookston precinct, Cherry county, Nebr., and spent the entire day in hearing said application and the petition of the remonstrators. Adjourned to July 30.

July 30, 1908.

Board met as per adjournment. Present: Messrs. Russell and Mone.

Commissioners continued with the hearing of the application of A. B. Overman for license to sell malt, spirituous and vinous liquors at Crookston, Crookston precinct, Cherry county, Nebr., and the same coming on further to be heard and the Board being fully advised in the premises finds that all of the facts stated in the petition of said A. B. Overman are true; that it is admitted by the remonstrators that said A. B. Overman has a majority of one (1) freeholder of all the resident freeholders of said Crookston precinct whose names appear on the petition and the remonstrance, on his said petition, and it is hereby ordered that a license be issued to said A. B. Overman to sell malt, spirituous and vinous liquors in Crookston, Crookston precinct, Cherry county, Nebraska, as in petition prayed, upon his giving a good and sufficient bond as by law required and paying into the county treasury the sum of $500. And the said applicant having filed and presented to the Board his bond in due form, the same is approved and the county clerk ordered to issue said license in manner and form as provided by law.

The commissioners proceeded to draw sixty names from the various precincts of the county from which the regular jury panel for the regular fall term of the district court of Cherry county, Nebr., be drawn.

Whereupon the board adjourned to July 31.
