

Edison Amberol Records.

Edison Records are so sweet clear and tuneful that you've often wished they were longer. They are now. They play, sing or talk twice as long as the Edison Records you have, which means that there is more music on them than on any other record made.

These double entertainers are called Amberol Records. Have you heard them? We have them for you to hear.

We carry the largest stock of Edison Records in N. W. Nebraska.

E. L. Meyers was elected senator of this district.

It's up to the people now to explain why they were influenced by the brewers to vote against "such men as Sheldon."

Ex-Senator Carmack of Tennessee was shot by Robin Cooper, son of Col. Duncan B. Cooper, following an article which appeared in Carmack's paper, The Tennessean, attacking Col. Cooper Monday afternoon.

Missouri has again been counted in the republican column, owing to the factional fight between Stone and Folk in the democratic party. Too bad. It seems that Ohio and Indiana both elected democratic governors; also Minnesota and North Dakota.

Kansas gave Taft a majority, but what can you expect of Kansas? Those hide-bound republicans wouldn't vote for anybody but a corporation tool of the republican brand. Look at the majority they rolled up for Calderhead for congress, and he tells them plainly that he thinks the trusts are a good thing for the country and the people believe it.

Westover appears to be defeated by a small majority and M. P. Kinkaid goes to congress for two years more but he has made several promises in the campaign that we will watch with considerable interest as he has almost promised democratic doctrine if he is sent back to complete the work he claims to have begun. We don't believe he will fulfill his promises if he can get enough republicans in congress to oppose him for a valid excuse. We don't believe he was sincere or he would have been busy the past six years, unless recently converted.

It now appears that the state ticket has gone republican, excepting governor and lieutenant governor. It was Sheldon the people were after and they got him—down and out. Some of the ring-tailed snorters who have been following Sheldon since his defeat trying to spread a little balm on his wounded feelings are making fools of themselves and him. The people have spoken and very emphatically, too. It was plain they didn't want Sheldon and his attempt now at revenge will only show the weakness exhibited when he refused to sign the 2-cent passenger rate bill until the railroad bosses released him by agreeing to accept the rate and abide by it. The bill would have become a law without his signature in five days anyway so Sheldon held off as long as he could and then, for effect and grandstand play, signed the bill. It will be hard to convince the people that Sheldon has been their loyal friend. They called him a four-flusher—a player to the galleries. But Sheldon now wants revenge. He thinks the brewers didn't vote for him. Wants to punish them. Thinks of calling a special session of the legislature if he can get their promise to vote for a three-fifths majority county option bill.

On Sunday next, November 15, there will be services, both morning and evening, at St. John's Episcopal church.

J. A. Hornback and wife went down to Broken Bow a week ago Thursday night, being called there on account of the serious illness of Mr. Hornback's sister who had been ailing for some time and died before reaching her bedside. After the funeral Mr. and Mrs. Hornback went to Surprise to visit another sister and returned to Valentine Tuesday morning. They turned their hotel business over to Mrs. Sears before leaving and are now living in the house south of R. A. McQuade's. Mr. Hornback hasn't decided what he will do but Valentine people will be glad to have them remain here.

School Notes

By R. H. WATSON

Garnet and Opal Holsclaw enrolled in the Chadron high school last week and Supt. Elliott says they spoke in the highest terms of the work in the Valentine schools.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Sparks, Miss Kortz, Miss Driscoll, Miss Gordon and R. H. Watson attended the State Teachers Association in Lincoln last week. It was a great meeting. There were about four thousand five hundred teachers registered.

Supt. C. L. Hopper published in his school paper last week, the three year latin course that we have recommended for most of the students who enter the Valentine High School and he expressed the wish that it might be adopted by the three high schools of Sheridan county.

The addition to the school building is nearly completed. Valentine may well be proud of her school house. Some of the rooms will not be needed for a year or two; but it will not be long. Within five years, under normal conditions, Valentine should have five teachers in the high school department and should be receiving at least $250 00 per month for tuition from non-resident pupils.

About 30 new members joined the Workmen last week.

Robert Good is new editor of a paper at Cawker City, Kan.

Mrs. A. L. Nicholson of Chadron is visiting her sisters in this city.

Mrs. S. W. Green of Ewing is visiting her parents at the rectory this week.

Mrs. W. D. Clarkson and daughter Gracie left last Friday for Omaha. The latter for medical treatment.

Dr. Meeham, osteopath, has moved into his new office rooms over the Red Front store. Telephone No. 155.

Mrs. Bates entertained Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cornell, Mrs. S. W. Green and the Rev. and Mrs. W. W. Wells at dinner Wednesday evening.

Miss Addie White expects to leave soon for Long Pine where she has accepted a similar position with the Telephone company of that place.

Mrs. Wesley Holsclaw and two children left Wednesday morning for Chadron to join her husband where they expect to make their future home.

The Royal Neighbor's gave a Farewell last evening on Mrs. Stanton of Crawford, Neb., who has been visiting in our city the past few weeks. A good time was reported.

A number spent a pleasant evening at home of M. V. Nicholson Tuesday playing progressive high five. Mr. Noyes won the gentlemen's prize and Miss Kate Donohue the ladies.

Dr. David D. Thompson editor of the Northwestern Christian Advocate was killed by an automobile running onto him as he attempted crossing the street in St. Louis Monday night.

One Moment, Please! Who's the Town Buster?

The citizen who sneers at his own town.
The citizen who belittles local enterprises.
The citizen who scoffs at home improvements.
The citizen who buys his household goods by mail.
The citizen who gets his job printing done outside.
That man's THE TOWN BUSTER.

Who's the Town Booster? Why, Here He Is!

The citizen who praises his own town.
The citizen who encourages local enterprises.
The citizen who helps along home improvements.
The citizen who patronizes the home merchants.
The citizen who gets his job printing done in his own town.
That man's THE TOWN BOOSTER.

In our opinion the national elections of the future will simply be roaring farces. Democrats may win when they put up a man favorable to the interests, but the people will never elect a man who will be free from corporation dictation. That time passed the 3rd of this month, never to return—The Crete Democrat.

The romantic drama, "The Flaming Arrow" will be the attraction at Church's opera house Nov. 14. The play is by Lincoln J. Carter and it is claimed that it is one of the truest pictures of western life the stage has seen, depicting army life and frontier realism in and about famous and historical old Fort Reno, the scene of so many stirring incidents in the pioneer days of the great west, when Indians and buffalos were as plentiful as they now are scarce. The story of the love of Chief White Eagle for Mary Freemont, daughter of the commander of the post, is founded on actual fact. All of the other characters are drawn from living prototypes. There is a treacherous polished villain, a fun loving Irish corporal and his sweetheart and many other dramatic and humorous incidents. The scenic effects are described as being especially elaborate, several of them being fac-similes of historical places.

"The Flaming Arrow."

When Edmund Carnotte, the celebrated sculptor, was commissioned by the United States treasury department to make the nineteen hundred penny, he selected a famous Indian as his model as having the truest Indian features he was able to find. Mr. Lincoln J. Carter, the noted producer and playwright, has written a thrilling and interesting play cleverly depicting frontier life, showing the American aborigine as he lives in his wigwam, his habits, mode of living, his character and temperament. The name of this play which will be seen at Church's opera house Nov. 14th, is "The Flaming Arrow," company of sterling worth, including 16 full blooded Indians, together with cowboys, scouts, ex-United soldiers, horses and bronchos. An Indian band with the attractions will play before each performance.

To The Public:

I stake my theatrical reputation that this is the most novel and worthy attraction now before the American public. At Church's opera house Saturday Nov. 14.
LINCOLN J. CARTER.
