Mrs. Geddes is teaching school near Bonesteel and may teach in this county next year when she moves onto her section of sand hills which will join with a section her mother has taken and with a section joining this her uncle, John Coleman, has taken. Mrs. Geddes is a sister of A. M Church, one of the newspaper boys.

Ed. Richards.

Ed Richards was born February, 1864, in Wales and came with his parents to America when he was eight years old.

When Ed was 17 or 18 years old he was interpreter for the Indians, while his father was Issue Clerk at Lower Brule agency. Later Ed went to work in the cattle business as a cow puncher, and for a number of years worked for the Ogallalla Cattle company, representing them in the roundups and traveled over the western part of this state and Eastern Wyoming. Western South Dakota and into Montana. He later worked for John Bratt in the same capacity, and about 12 years ago started in for himself with 80 head of Texas cows near Irwin. Some years later he came down to Kennedy and for awhile run his herd west of Dan Sears' ranch, then moved to his present ranch east of Kennedy.

He joined the M. W. A. some years ago and carried $2,000 insurance for his family—a wife and four children. He also belonged to the Masonic fraternity who took charge of his funeral, which was held in Valentine Sunday afternoon at the M. E. church and the funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Baker.

Ed Richards had a large circle of friends. All the old time cattle men knew him. The large attendance at his funeral was not only as a courtesy to the departed friend but because of friends who mourned his death. The country has lost a citizen; friends have lost a counselor and a comrade, the wife has lost a valuable and loving husband and the children a devoted father. We'll all miss him. He's been called away sooner than we expected but death comes to all and plucks the apparently strong and rugged ones, often passing by the frail.

A brother, Richard J. Richards, came up to attend the funeral. He lives at Hartington with his mother. Ed was down to see them recently and only a couple of weeks before his death he was on our streets, cheerful and strong as he responded to our "Hello Ed."

Wes Massingale Murdered

Eldorado, Ark., Dec 25.—C. W. Massingale, aged 50 years, of Valentine, Neb., who has been here for several months, was robbed of about $200 Wednesday night and killed. His body was found yesterday near the school house in Eldorado. Lee L Combs, a farmer living about four miles from here, who was arrested in Little Rock last Summer, said to have been charged with larceny, is held in connection with the killing.—State Journal.

Sheriff Rosseter Alert.

Sheriff Rosseter is ever on the alert to catch a criminal when he gets after him, Orvill Wilson was wanted for horse stealing in the west part of the county and when the sheriff went after him he skipped out. Learning that Wilson's relatives lived at Lincoln and believing that he would drop in during the holidays, Sheriff Rosseter took a warrant down to Lincoln recently when he went down with a prisoner and placed it in the hands of the sheriff of Lancaster county and instructed him to keep watch and Monday a message came that he had him. Rosseter is now bringing Mr. Wilson up from Lincoln to answer to the charge of horse stealing which may result in his being taken back pretty near his home.

The Savage Fuel Co.

Two years ago Ex-Governor E. P Savage and son, H. S. Savage, engaged in the fuel business at their present location, buying a site of six lots with railroad trackage on Adams and 60th streets. Up to the advent of this firm's birth, South Tacoma had at times experienced fuel famines in the winter season, because the other dealers had not sufficient capital or anticipated the amount of fuel required to supply the people's wants. This new firm has at all times carried over 1000 cords of dry wood in their yards and have leased ten additional lots for storage of same. Six teams are kept busy all the time with eight to twelve men employed in handling the business. Besides dealing in fuel, they supply all kinds of building material, lime, cement, brick and gravel and do a general contracting in heavy team work. The payroll of the firm averages $500 per month.—South Tacoma Press.

Boom Your Own Town.

Business will prosper
Only when the people
Of the community
Make a united effort.

Your business depends
On others' prosperity.
Unless we work together
Results are disappointing.

Only those prosper
Whose patrons are prosperous.
Nothing succeeds like success!

Towns thrive and flourish
Only when they observe to—
When their own people
Neglect no opportunities.
