

Wrap up Some Hot Water

within a good hot water bottle and apply it to the frigid sections of the bed, down near the foot, and you will pass the winter devoid of the terrors of cold feet.

Hot water bottles are needed in every home as a hot application in case of sickness or attacks of neuralgia, toothache, etc.

We have a full stock of water bottles made of the finest rubber at reasonable prices.

A Safe, Simple System

The system of paying by check was devised by all men—for any man—for you. It is suited to the need of any business, either large or small. It makes no difference whether we pay out $10 or $10000 a month. A checking account will serve your needs.

Pay by check, the method puts system into your business and gives you a record of every transaction.

Representative John F. Carr left the first of the week for Lincoln to take his seat in the thirty-first general assembly.—Springview Herald.

Jim Irwin was severely hurt several days ago by falling from a step ladder across a barrel, hurting his side and chest. Jim is not over the effects of it yet but is able to get around.

Ed and Walter Vollentine and Sidney Irwin of Lavaca were in town Monday as witnesses against Wilson who is charged with stealing a horse from Mr. Vollentine. Wilson was bound over to the district court.

The railroad company and Clarkson, the local ice man, are busy this week putting up ice. The weather is good for ice but we fail to see any other advantage excepting to warmer climates which may get some of our citizens.

Oscar Newman and Carl Connolly and a friend came up last week for a visit with Mrs. Newman's father and mother, W. H. Hooper and wife on north table, and with Mr. Newman's sisters, Mrs. W. T. Brosius and Mrs. Fairchild.

Mrs Mahala McKercher, 74 years old, died at 3 a. m., yesterday at the family home, three miles east of Normal. The funeral will take place at the home this afternoon at 1 o'clock, and burial will be at Wyuka, cemetery.—State Journal, Jan 9.

Jesse Granger's team got a little gay last Saturday and broke the wagon wheel and reach down at the mill and but for prompt assistance of some of the ice men might have done more damage. Jesse tells us that he and the Missis are going to move to town.

The Workmen and Degree of Honor lodges held a joint installation of officers Monday night and invited a few extras to join in the feast prepared by the lodges after the installation. Then there was music by the Ralya orchestra which was good enough to make a Methodist want to dance and they danced. There were lots of young people there and they all seemed to enjoy a good time.

Lew Smith died at the St Joseph's hospital in Omaha early Sunday morning of stomach trouble and a complication of ailments. He was taken to Beemer, the home of his relatives, for burial. Lew Smith and Mat House came to this country together. They were schoolmates in Missouri and grew up together and worked together several years after coming to this county. The deceased was married twice, first to Miss Nevada Brown who died about ten years ago, and a few years ago was married to Miss May Stephenson. Mr. Smith was about 45 years old. He was an Odd Fellow and a Workman, in which order he carried some insurance.

The German Fire Ins. Co. has been incorporated with $100,000 capital stock, fully paid up, and has taken over the old German Mutual Fire Ins. Co., and fully guarantee all out-standing policies in the old company. They start the new year with over $250,000 capital and surplus.

Forest Shepard received a telegram this morning that his brother Will, who has been in Omaha doctoring, is worse. He was shot in the hip at Crawford several weeks ago and went to Omaha to have the bullet removed. Forest took the afternoon freight to Long Pine and the early train from there to Omaha.

The M. W. A. and Royal Neighbors held a joint installation of officers last night. The ladies always out do the men on such occasions and had a feast prepared which they served after the ceremonies, in which they also excel. There were a hundred or more despite the zero weather and after supper the wood choppers hooked onto a Royal Neighbor apiece and tripped the light fantastic until a late hour.

Special services are in progress at the M. E. church and interest is increasing each evening. Song service begins at 7:30, preaching at 8:00. Sunday morning Rev. Elkhorn Change of Route.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 13.—Judge Kinkaid has secured a favorable report on the bill, which recently passed the senate, permitting the Elkhorn road to change its route across the Niobrara reservation and Niobrara river. It will probably pass the house and become a law before the end of the week.—World-Herald.

Talk of Oasis.

Bill Tripe is after rats nowadays. The news is froze up this week. We see that the canal is very well. I see Lenard Beal has got back from his visit east. We haven't lost sweetheart Lize for she is back again. Glory to God. We don't know if Dave or Earl is going to win out at Oasis, the road is hot. Dave and big mattress are kind a spooning. It looks kind of suspicious to a man up a tree. It has been pretty cold here but stock is doing well. They are using lots of hay these days and we never saw stock look better this kind of weather. Look out for Plymouth Rock chickens. We see Daddy Long Legs has got back from Carpenterville. Our Chicago friend has been promoted to cook. Sam McAlevy is looking well since his change in life, and he has talked his wife's right wing off. Sam says all you old bachelors are fooling away your lives. (To be continued.)

Old Timer Returns.

Ralph Crabb returned yesterday morning from Tacoma, Wash., bringing his father who is in poor health back. Gehile P. Crabb was formerly a farmer on north table, coming here from Western Missouri in the early days and was here during the trying times of drouths and crop failures, the times that tried men's souls, and the faint hearted went back to their wife's relation. The fall of 1893 Mr. Crabb was elected county treasurer of this county and held the office two terms. During the fall of 1897 Mr. Crabb and J. G. Vincent started a store in Valentine and the first of the year 1898 Mr. Crabb left the treasurer's office to take up his duties in the store. They seemed to do a good business but did not make as much money as they anticipated and Vincent sold his interest to Will Morgareidge and Morgareidge in turn to Claude Roece. The store was not a financial success and was closed up in 1892 to pay creditors.

Old Timer Returns.

Ralph Crabb returned yesterday morning from Tacoma, Wash., bringing his father who is in poor health back. Gehile P. Crabb was formerly a farmer on north table, coming here from Western Missouri in the early days and was here during the trying times of drouths and crop failures, the times that tried men's souls, and the faint hearted went back to their wife's relation. The fall of 1893 Mr. Crabb was elected county treasurer of this county and held the office two terms. During the fall of 1897 Mr. Crabb and J. G. Vincent started a store in Valentine and the first of the year 1898 Mr. Crabb left the treasurer's office to take up his duties in the store. They seemed to do a good business but did not make as much money as they anticipated and Vincent sold his interest to Will Morgareidge and Morgareidge in turn to Claude Roece. The store was not a financial success and was closed up in 1892 to pay creditors.
