Cherry Valley Cracklings.

Miss Cora Ward has been on the sick list.

Frank Krampert was out of school Monday; sore throat.

Bert Klingaman has quit school and has taken a job of feeding.

O. W. McDaniel and wife and Miss Ida were Woodlake callers Saturday.

Miss Dora Grewe spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Frank Krampert.

Eugene McKenna was seen riding through Cherry Valley with a broom tied to his saddle.

Roy Klingaman is in the Valley again. He is employed by David Hanna and is feeding cattle.

Lloyd Klingaman, who formerly attended school in Woodlake, has returned to the C.V.S. school.

A debate was held at the school recently. Question: Resolved, That Immigration into the U. S. Should Be Prohibited.

The C. V. S. baseball team organized last week. They appointed Billy Nicholas captain. We congratulate you Billy.

We understand the Woodlake opera house and coal sheds have changed hands; the event being celebrated by a moving picture show.

We understand that Pleasant Valley has secured a teacher again. We hope them an abundance of success, which we are sure they will have, as they've one of Cherry county's best teachers.

A cobweb party was given at T. L. Tinkham's last Saturday by their daughter, Miss Eloise. It was a great success. A surprise party was given August Kloppling the same evening. It was also a success.

Every Tub Stands
On Its Own Bottom.

And so does every town.
If the bottom of this town drops out, what are we going to stand on?
And the bottom will drop out—
If we fail to stand together and work together for the good of the community—myself, yourself and the other fellow.
In order to build to the top, there must be a solid bottom.
