Talk of the Town.

"The Gay Coons From Dixie" at the opera house Saturday evening, May 1.

Ted Ormesher was in town last week and we notice he attends strictly to business.

The Cherry County Telephone Co., has recently installed a 30-line toll switchboard.

The funny "Ole" show will make you laugh at the opera house on the evening of May 5.

Milt Dunham and family returned from the reservation to resume their residence in Valentine.

Fremont Tate had business in our city a couple of days last week. He lives 12 miles south of Marsh lake.

L. R. Sheldon of Neligh is the new night man, taking Frank Hunter's place at the electric light power house.

Miss Maud Van Orsdoll and Miss Kittie Kelly of Rosebud visited Valentine friends Saturday and Sunday.

Julius Schromm has moved out to his ranch, and John Wilson and family have gone out there to help him run the ranch.

See "The Gay Coons From Dixie" in vaudeville at Church's opera house Saturday night, May 1. Two hours solid fun.

B. L. Murphy, a new homesteader was in town last Saturday, he having taken a claim near Fremont Tate's south of Marsh lake.

A dance will be given in the opera house April 30. Music by the Ralya orchestra. Everybody come and have a good time.

Seed potatoes—Early Ohio, northern grown, and Bliss Triumph—for sale at the Red Front or at John Ormesher's. $1.00 per bushel.

Al Stewart, who attended court here last week, found a pocket-book Sunday morning, which was later claimed by W. A. Keister's little girl.

The ladies of the M. E. aid will serve supper Wednesday evening, May 5, beginning at 5 o'clock in Bethel hall. Everybody come.

Sheriff Rosseter returned yesterday from a trip up the road on legal business. Ira and Earl Goodin are wanted for horse stealing near Cody.

Charles Shepard came down from Crawford last week and brought with him their favorite horse Prince, which he has been keeping up there since last fall.

Eugene Grace and son of Neligh, formerly proprietors of the Atlantic hotel at that place, has purchased of John Eaton the Doncher hotel and take possession next Monday. Mr. Eaton and family have decided to move out onto a homestead which Mr. Eaton has filed on about 8 miles south of Valentine.

Ole Olson in Spiritland at the opera house May 5.

Wanted—Horses to pasture, 30c a month, two miles west of town. 162 Wm. Grooms.

Richard Owens, Chet Grooms, Dick Osborn and Aetwa Brechbill hauled in a car load of hogs last Saturday, which they sold to J. W. Stetter for $6.40 per cwt.

Henry Porath returned last week from Omaha where he had a car of hogs on the market, which brought him $7.12½ per cwt., and netted over $1,000 for the car load.

Herman LaMotte, who recently purchased a farm of Jas. Searby near Crookston, was in town yesterday and called at our office to subscribe for THE DEMOCRAT.

There will be a celebration of the Holy Eucharist at 11 o'clock a. m. in St. John's church Sunday, May 2, with an address. Even-song at 8 p. m., and a sermon.

If you enjoy a hearty laugh, good singing and dancing and a funny Swede play, see "Ole Olson in Spiritland" at the opera house, Wednesday, May 5. Ay tank she bane good fallar.

Wm. DeBord is selling fruit trees for the Council Bluffs Nursery for the fourth season in this vicinity and appears to have given satisfaction. If you are in need of fruit trees you should consult him. 152

Douglas Sherman, son of Chas. E. Sherman and wife, died Tuesday at the age of 10 months. The funeral was held at the home on Cherry street. Our sympathies are extended to this family in their sad bereavement.

J. W. Trumble, special agent for the Farmers Mutual Ins. Co., of Lincoln, arrived this (Friday) morning to adjust the John Rvschon loss by fire, which occurred last Friday, burning part of their household goods and dwelling.

Gov. Shallenberger is slated as a speaker at Crawford on July 4 this year and expects to stop off at Valentine enroute home to spend a few days out fishing at the lakes south of town. It's a little early to mention it, perhaps, but let's put up the flags when he comes.

August Klopping and N. J. Uek were in our city last Friday and attended the stockmen's meeting. Mr. Klopping is a member of the firm of Klopping Bros., south of Woodlake, and Mr. Uek is in the hardware business in Woodlake. We acknowledge a pleasant visit while they were here, and they also found time to go down to the lake and catch some crappies.

Dick Cook stopped in Valentine Monday to visit old friends and acquaintances before starting for California, where he has made his home near Selma the past few years. Dick is looking well and enjoys good health working in the pineries. He has been back in Iowa visiting his sister the past winter and had been up to the Diamond Bar to visit a couple of weeks when he stopped here. Charley Cook is running a linotype on the Selma (Cal.) Irrigator, and Mrs. Cook is at the head of a clothes cleaning, dyeing and pressing establishment at Grass Valley, Cal., and enjoys good health and has a good business.

The article in last week's Democrat appears to have stirred up the grafters to an alarming extent. But not enough to cause them to refund the money. We notice that the clerk (of the Valentine Lumber Co.) has been instructed to purchase more tools for the use of county. It is our understanding that it is the duty of the county commissioners to advertise for bids if the amount involved exceeds in value $100. Now, Mr. Rowley and Mr. Mone, you owe it to the taxpayers to see that Mr. Morris should not be allowed to purchase supplies for the county from himself at an exorbitant price. Give all the implement dealers an opportunity to bid on these supplies and thereby save the county hundreds of dollars. TAXPAYERS.
