VALENTINE JUNIOR NORMAL.

G. A. GREGORY, Principal.

The Seventh annual session of the Valentine Junior Normal will be held from June 7th to July 30th, 1909, eight weeks.

This longer session gives time to do better work in all the subjects pursued and will be especially helpful to those who are preparing for their first year in teaching, since more time can be devoted to observation in the model school and to the study of methods.

Tuition and text books are free. An enrollment fee of two dollars entitles each student to all lectures and entertainments.

Those branches required for any grade of county certificate, elementary state certificate or professional life certificate will be included in the course of study.

Good table board may be had in clubs at $3.50 per week. Rooms 50c to $1.00.

Convenient rooms may be had in which students may board themselves.

Several students, both boys and girls, would like places to work for their board. Any citizen who wants such help should let the County Superintendent know.

The State superintendent has made a wise selection of instructors for the faculty, men and women who have dealt with all phases of public school work, and who know how to inspire and help those preparing to teach.

No better place than Valentine can be found for a summer school and every instructor who has been here in the past six years has remained enthusiastic in regard to the ideal conditions here. This is the only place that provides boat rides, extensive horse-back excursions, annual picnic journeys and many other social recreations for the spare time. Teachers and students at Valentine form a large, happy, mutually helpful family, and they are helped in many ways by the genial citizens of the city on the Minnehaduzza. Come to Valentine. Enter the first day and remain throughout.

Institute week for Cherry county is from June 7th to 12th, inclusive.

For any further information address G. A. Gregory, principal, Crete; or Lulu Kortz Hudson, registrar, Valentine, Nebr.

S. J. Blakely and family leave today for Portland, Ore.

Mrs. Jackson entertained a few friends at a luncheon given Friday May 14, in honor of Mrs. R. H. Watson.

John Heelan brought in a load of hay Wednesday which he sold for 3/4 a pound—almost 50 cents a bushel, isn't it? and it was loose hay, too, but it was clean, bright hay that makes a horse smile and get busy.

Mrs. Margaret Heelan and her daughters, Miss Margaret Heelan and Mrs. John Heelan, of Arabia, came up on the freight Wednesday and after transacting business in our city returned on the afternoon freight. Our new trains beginning Sunday will help local travel considerably.

The Rt. Rev. Anson R. Graves, D. D., bishop, of Kearney, will officiate and preach both morning and evening on Sunday next, May 23, in St. John's church. There will be a celebration of the holy communion and the administration of the apostolic rite of confirmation with sermon at 11 o'clock a. m. Evensong with address at 8 o'clock p. m.

The Harding Stock Co., supporting David Murdock, in a repertoire of plays that appeal to all, will appear at Church's opera house Monday and Tuesday nights, May 24 and 25. Both plays are so cleverly written that there is no unnecessary language used to mar the action of the piece. Mr. Murdock is a remarkable clever and versatile actor, having been in the business since a child; an experience of 18 years; in that time with many of the best New York attractions. This company is composed of 12 very clever people suited to their respective parts. Monday night they play "Drifted Apart," and Tuesday night, "Buster Brady, From Broadway."

E. A. Searby and W. Wertz of Crookston were here on business Monday.

Grant Boyer's uncle, B. F. Wimple of Elgin, Ill., visited relatives here last week.

John G. Lord has been appointed assistant forest ranger. He was in town Tuesday.

Grant Boyer has the contract for a new house for B. Atwood west of Mrs. Wilson's.

J. W. Trumble adjusted a fire loss for Mr. Tate west of Crookston Wednesday for the Farmers' Mut. Ins. Co.

Gus Gunderson was here last week. He is getting tired working so hard and wants to sell his fine ranch south of Cody.

Lawrence Beebout of Johnston was awarded $300 in Judge Quigley's court last week for injury while working on the section for the railroad company.

Mrs. Church has been greatly annoyed the past week by boys locking her moving picture audience in with a padlock and throwing eggs through windows.

T. W. Cramer is now ready to do any and all kinds of insurance, including growing crops, automobiles, windmills and thorough bred stock against death from any cause.

W. E. Hahn of Deadwood has bought the Irwin ranch and is stocking it with fine horses and high grade white face and short horn cattle. He was in town last Monday.

Wm. E. Smalls, cashier, and Robert Bridge, president of the Farmers & Merchants National Bank, and Charley Johnson, a farmer of near Fremont, are in the city looking over land.

A fire was discovered in the Willott stand just in time to save the west side of Main street Tuesday evening. Everybody boost for our new reservoir and good water. Several days the past week the present tank was empty while cleaning and repairing same. A big fire could have swept the city in the meantime.

Thomas Darnell, the Anti-Saloon man from Lincoln, will speak in the M. E. church on Sunday. In the evening he will speak in connection with the gospel temperance meeting previously announced, and will probably use the regular service time in the morning; of this we have not been informed but we feel pretty sure this will be the case. We regret that this occasion should happen to come on a Sunday when the Presbyterian pulpit is occupied, that we might have a union or mass meeting. All people are cordially invited.
