J, H. Gable, traveling agent for the C.& N.W., was in town yesterday and we consulted him in regard to the proposed excursion of the E. V. E. A., to Hot Springs. We had hoped to get transportation for all the editors and their wives on an advertising basis, but he has turned that proposition down. Says he can't do a thing excepting on a cash basis. Now, we never did believe that any law was constitutional that prohibited a newspaper from taking wood, watermelons or hay on subscription, or from swapping advertising for the bread of life, railroad transportation or for any commodity. We are up against a proposition of paying the price in cash or visit elsewhere. The price to Hot Springs and return from Long Pine is $9.10 and $2.00 each way for standard sleeper or $1.00 each way for tourist sleeper, which makes a swim at Hot Springs cost $12 to $15 apiece. A bath at your home barber shop is cheaper, or better yet if you have a bath room at home. We'd all go on the old plan and try to enjoy the trip, but when it comes to digging up the cash we'll have to squeeze in proportion to the way the railroad company cut down their advertising from $106 in 1906 to $19.80 in 1908 which cuts out some of the extras. We can all visit at Long Pine and have a good time togeththat wears one out instead of giving him a rest. We expect to meet you there. Some of the editors we notice have announced looking for Bros. Mayes, Cooper, Johansen and Snow from up the road and hope the other new editors will join us at this association.

The State Sunday School convention meets in Kearney on June 15-16-17. Dr. Franklin McElfresh of Chicago, superintendent of Teacher Training in the Inter-national Sunday school association, er, as well as go on a long trip and a fine platform man, will tell of the trained teacher and what he can do in the school. His address on "The County Sunday School," Dr. Clark of Ohio says, is the greatest address ever heard in their intention to be there. We're Ohio and they have had some great speakers in Ohio. Rev. P. H. Welshimer of Canton, O., who has done such marvelous work in his own church through his Sunday school, will represent the pastor's department and every pastor in Nebraska ought to hear him tell of the wonderful advances of Christianity in Canton. Charles Fordyce, Dean of State University Teachers' College, will give an address on "How to Manage the Boy." F. E. Hathaway of Chicago will lead us in our songs. He is a skilled leader. There will be reports and addresses and con-
