Harold Dunn has accepted a summer's job with Chapman, the druggist.

For sale—Five spitz pups white and curly. Call and look at 'em. 20-4 A. G. SHAW.

A number of Valentine people attended the Novak sale on the north table yesterday.

A. M. Morrissey returned Friday night from a short business trip to Omaha.

The Masonic lodge will install its newly elected officers on Tuesday evening, June 15.

Normal students can find rooms, with cooking privileges. Mrs. Clara Felch, north Cherry St. 123

Obe Church came down from Merriman Monday night to spend a few days in town attending to business.

Wm. Beamer from Merriman was in town Wednesday on business connected with the school of his district.

John Neiss and T. C. Hornby expect to attend the grand lodge of Masons which convenes in Omaha next week.

D. W. Parmelee returned from an eastern trip Monday night and spent Tuesday in town, going over to Cut Meat yesterday.

Judge Quigley went down to Wood Lake on the freight Wednesday evening and returned on the midnight passenger.

Mrs. Ed Parry was taken to Hot Springs last Sunday morning for treatment. She has been very ill for nearly two months.

Oliver Walcott returned from Lincoln, Sunday night, where he has successfully completed his junior year at the law school.

County Assessor P. H. Young met his deputies in town Tuesday and Wednesday to receive their returns from assessing the several precincts of this county. After balancing up the books the county commissioners meet as a board of equalization June 15 to 20 to adjust claims and equalize the assessment.

Frank Remondier of Kirgoe is in town today.

Wm. Taylor has moved out of his old home on Main street into one of the Pettycrew houses back of the Ludwig Lumber Co.

William Kennedy is assisting County Assessor Young with office work, in making out the complete and condensed list of taxable property.

A number of normal students have already arrived in order to secure rooms in advance. The attendance this year promises to be large.

J. T. Keeley is fencing his homestead south of town and making other improvements, so he will have the necessary improvements required by law to make final proof.

W. D. Ricketts of Eli precinct was in town yesterday on business. Mr. Ricketts is one of the oldest settlers in the western part of the county and is still satisfied with Cherry county.

The Valentine Lumber Co. has finished building a large lumber shed. The structure erected will be but temporary as it is the intention to build one much larger in the near future.

Miss Ruth Stetter came home Sunday night from Ponca, this state, where she has been teaching in the primary department of the public school. She was so successful that she has been re-elected for the coming year with increased salary.

Ira Johnson of Gordon spent several days in town this week. He says that land in the western part of the county has advanced 50 per cent in value in the past year. The weather conditions this spring, however, has made it hard on the farmer, and settlers have been slow about coming in.

F. H. Dillon, cashier of the new bank at Kilgore, was in town yesterday on business. The new bank opened up for business the first of the month and Mr. Dillon feels satisfied with business already. He says that Kilgore is booming, a new store building being erected and several buildings being built.

Peter Wantz stopped in Valentine yesterday enroute to his home at Johnstown. He had been out to Lander, Wyo., where he had taken a stallion which he disposed of at a good price. Mr. Wantz says oats were worth $1.75 per cwt., but were better than raised here. All crops are irrigated in that country.

Reports from Brownlee reach this paper that Mrs. Silas Searson recently deserted her husband and four little children to run away with a man by the name of Montgomery, who also was married. They are supposed to have gone west. While to those concerned such things seem hard; in the long run they are better for it.

Chris Dittmer was in town last Thursday and called to bid us goodbye before departing the following Sunday morning for New York where he and his wife and baby expected to take a steamer for their old home near Hamburg, Germany. It has been 25 years since Mr. Dittmer came to this country and he will note many changes in the home of his youth. They expect to be gone about three months.

Sheriff Rosseter was called to the north table the first of the week to assist in the pursuit of a crazy man who had been terrorizing the neighborhood. But on reaching the scene of activities the man had eluded his searchers, and after a day's pursuit the sheriff returned to town. It is thought that he went over on the reservation and a squad of police are looking for him now. The man, from the description given, was evidently a stranger and apparently well dressed. He was harmless; his chief ambition seeming to be to jump up and catch the telephone wires.
