Normal Notes.

E. O. Garret, representing the American Book Co., spent a day with us last week.

Supt. Bowen gave an instructive talk on the subject of arousing interest in reading.

Minnie Adamson came to Valentine Saturday in time to go out on the picnic with her friend and teacher Miss Lulu Gregory.

Mrs. Hudson's mother, Mrs. Baker has been spending a week in Valentine. She was one of those who enjoyed the picnic at Perry Falls.

Addie Harvey entertained the normalites Monday at Chapel with a reading that was well rendered and much appreciated by those who were present.

Myrtle Harris, class '03 V. J. N. spent Saturday and Sunday with her friend Frances Harden. She enjoyed the annual picnic with her many friends.

One of our Normal boys, Hiram Newman, was honored last Sunday by Mr. Darnell of Lincoln who appointed him temporary collector for the Anti-Saloon League.

Rev. Baker pleased the Normalites with a very practical Chapel talk last Thursday. He knows how to say the right things for teachers to hear. Come again friend Baker.

Supt. Bettenga again interested and instructed the Normal by some very neat experiments in physics. Hydrogen was produced, experiments with the syphon and air pump, performed.

The deft and successful manner in which County Supt. Hudson planned for the picnic lunch, again shows her skill in management and her close friendly touch with the teachers who will quickly act on her kindly suggestions.

Some of the rear guard of teams on the way to the picnic found three very lively people in the vicinity of the fort. They were glad to accept the invitation to ride and were soon in the midst of their friends who were waiting for them.

Last Friday afternoon four of the old time normalites, Myrtle Harris, Frances Harden, Lulu Gregory, escorted by Supt. Gregory, mounted horses and inspected the railroad works on both sides of the river. All points of interest were visited and many feats of horsemanship performed.

The examinations to be held at the close of the normal next week are only for those who enroll in the normal, the regular county examination having been held last week. The examination next week is for county certificates, so any one can enroll as a normal student as late as Wednesday morning July 28 and take any subject in the examinations, which close Friday night.

Again the annual normal picnic has come and gone—come, with its joy, jokes and jollity, laughter and light-heartedness—gone, into the hearts and memories of those who were there as one of the beautiful things to be treasured. From the time of loading into the wagons at the school house and taking the picture of the group at eight o'clock, until the closing songs and yells on the return to Main street in Valentine at nine o'clock in the evening there was the best of good nature prevailing. Those who have been on many of these outings with the normal pronounce this one as the very best. The weather was ideal, the picnic grounds more lovely than usual, the strolls in the woods in small and large groups more enjoyable than ever, even the water in the river was declared by some to be better than on other occasions. After the bountiful dinner some songs and yells made the glens echo, some impromptu remarks in which the well deserved praises of Mrs. Hudson, Judge Walcott, Mrs. Sparks, Mr. Hudson and others loyal to the normal were sounded received the vociferous applause of the crowd, and all yelled a mighty yell for Miss Jordan who was declared the next treasurer of Cherry county. The afternoon was spent going to the falls, climbing cliffs, wading streams, sitting and chatting in cool nooks, playing games, reading, taking naps in the cool shade, gathering raspberries or botanizing as each one listed until the hour of meeting. A lunch was then enjoyed, which, with plenty of lemonade, refreshed the crowd, ready for the drive home.

When picnic day shall come again,
So filled with mirth and pleasure;
If you and I are there, dear heart,
Our joy will know no measure.

Campbell Brothers circus will be here Friday, July 30. Valentine is fortunate in getting this big attraction for our city and the people should appreciate this big attraction by coming in to see the show, and come prepared to take back a bill of goods from a Valentine merchant who will sell them right. Tell them you read this item and that you want to try a Valentine market. Report to us if you don't find everything all right. We suggest that you buy your goods of a merchant who advertises in THE DEMOCRAT.

See Campbell Brothers Great Consolidated Shows when they exhibit in Valentine on Friday, July 30, or you will miss the greatest treat of the season. It's bigger, better, more gorgeous than ever and will give you entertainment to talk of for many days. The grand morning parade is over a mile in length.

Early communion in St. John's church on Sunday next, July 25, at 7:30 a. m. Sunday school at ten. Matins and sermon at eleven. Litany service on Friday evening at 7:30. Choir practice at eight.

Have you read the great moving sale of A. John & Co. in this paper.
