Talk of the Town.

John Keeley has opened up a stand on Main street.

Wood Lake carnival Thursday, Sept. 30.

Judge Hamer of Kearney was in town Saturday.

Sam Schneider has sold his farm north of Crookston for $30 per acre.

J. R. and Horace Wallingford were in town Tuesday and Wednesday.

Wood Lake does things right. Remember their carnival date, Thursday, Sept. 30.

W. L. Cohee came in Tuesday as a witness in the government land case of E. Stillwell.

Douglas McChesney and Olaf Nelson came down from Murdo in the former's auto last Friday.

A queer condition again confronts us. All advertising and no room for locals. Read the ads.

Wm. Harnan spent Tuesday in town. He is very busy building a new house at his home near Newton.

J. C. Rounds stopped off here Tuesday enroute home from shipping stock to Sioux City from Interior, S. D.

The Alliance baseball boys defeated our local team on the home grounds Tuesday 4 to 3 and yesterday 10 to 3. 'Nuff said.

Maynard Bishop is moving to town and has bought out Mark Stewart's cleaning and pressing business. Mrs. Bishop made final proof on her homestead Tuesday.

Wood Lake promises a good time at their carnival Sept. 30.

Wm. Palmer had his collar bone broken Wednesday of last week by his horse falling with him while riding after cattle.

Mike Davis has bought the old Fremont Brewing Co's lot and building, between the McDonald store and the Owl saloon.

J. F. S. Phillis, south of Kilgore, and H. Buttinghaus were in town Tuesday. The former is building a house on his homestead.

There was a big crowd out to the North Table picnic and fair last Saturday. For want of space now we'll tell more about it next week.

J. F. Kellar started Saturday night to Caldwell, O. to attend the Old Soldiers' Reunion at that place. He will be back in two weeks.

John Stetter, Len Bivens and George Hunter are giving moving picture shows every night in the opera house to good audiences. They had some trouble at first with poor reels but everything moves along now and the pictures are good and plain. Only 10 cents to see it.

Geo. K. Sawyer and wife were in town last Saturday. Mr. Sawyer went back to his old home in Elgin, Ill., and was married to Miss Maude Morse of Dundee, June 30, and they returned to Cherry county about the middle of July. We join with numerous other friends in congratulations.
