

Facts For Sick Women

We know of no other medicine which has been so successful in relieving the suffering of women, or secured so many genuine testimonials, as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

In almost every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Almost every woman you meet has either been benefited by it, or knows some one who has.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., are files containing over one million one hundred thousand letters from women seeking health, in which many openly state over their own signatures that they have regained their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved many women from surgical operations.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is made exclusively from roots and herbs, and is perfectly harmless.

The reason why it is so successful is because it contains ingredients which act directly upon the female organism, restoring it to healthy and normal activity.

Thousands of unsolicited and genuine testimonials such as the following prove the efficiency of this simple remedy.

Minneapolis, Minn.:—"I was a great sufferer from female troubles which caused a weakness and broken down condition of the system. I read so much of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other suffering women, I felt sure it would help me, and I must say it did help me wonderfully. Within three months I was a perfectly well woman."

"I want this letter made public to show the benefits to be derived from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. John G. Moldan, 2115 Second St. North, Minneapolis, Minn.

Women who are suffering from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

SIXTY YEARS A HARPIST.

Rosalie Spohr a Figure in Berlin's Musical and Social Life.

One of the most interesting characters in the musical life of Berlin is Rosalie Spohr, the harpist, who is a niece of the great violinist Louis Spohr, an exchange says. She made her first appearance in public on Dec. 13, 1849, at a concert given by Jennie Lind. She attracted attention first because of her distinguished musical descent, but after the world had once heard her art made her famous.

There are few women before the public to-day who play the harp as virtuosos, although one sees them occasionally in the opera orchestras. So it is difficult nowadays to realize that Rosalie Spohr toured Europe in triumph. She found in Franz Liszt a devoted friend and enthusiastic admirer and he was proud to play with her at Weimar as well as give her the benefit of his artistic advice. Her career as a public performer ended after about six years. Then she became the wife of Count Saurma and the stage knew her no more. She still lives in Berlin, more than 80 years old, but enthusiastic in her devotion to the instrument with which she won the triumphs of her brief professional career. For three hours every day she practices the harp, and her technique has for that reason remained very complete for one of her age. Her talent was in a measure hereditary, since her aunt was a well-known harpist in her day. It was through her playing that Rosalie Spohr, who had begun her musical life as a pianist, turned her attention to the harp.

A widow for more than twenty years, it has been her devotion to her art that made life interesting to her during all this time. Her education was sound, in the first place, for she studied for two years under the harpist Grimm, who allowed her to play in public at the end of that period, although it was one of his principles that a harpist should study for ten years. Countess Rosalie has been an intimate friend of the German royal family, and both Friedrich and the empress were delighted to hear her play. Nowadays she is a unique figure in the musical and social life of Berlin and an inspiration to the younger students, who see what a joy and consolation an art may be to one who has acquired it faithfully.

Fish Know the Weather.

"In their way," said an old fisherman, "fishes are good weather prophets. If a storm is approaching the fish stop biting and they won't bite again until the storm is well over. They appear to know when a storm is coming and when it has really passed. And to fishermen and farmers living along shore fish foretell the near approach of cold weather. Hours before it comes fishes leave the shallow waters in shore and seek the deeper water, which in its depths will stay warm and keep an equable temperature after the shallower and surface waters have turned cold. Oh, yes, fishes know a thing or two about the weather."—New York Press.

WISHED DEATH MIGHT COME

To Relieve the Awful Suffering of Advanced Kidney Disease.

William Gibson, Greenup, Ky., says: "Three months I was in bed, and would have died, I believe, but for Doan's Kidney Pills. My doctor said the case was hopeless. My back felt as if it were being seared with a red-hot iron. The kidney secretions were painful, irregular and full of sediment. There were puffy spots beneath my eyes and my head pained terribly. I was miserable in every way and often wished death might relieve me. When I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills my condition was so serious that they had little effect, but I persisted, getting gradually better, and it was not a great while before I was cured. The effect has been lasting."

SOME MARRIED MEDITATIONS.

By Clarence L. Cullen.

Another dead-sure preliminary to a touch is when she tells you that you are looking so tired around the eyes.

The time used to be when only men called an evening of wild and hysterical rummiferousness "having a good time."

Why is it that the woman who harps incessantly upon the inconsistency and the willness of men usually has a face like that of a perturbed sun perch?

It makes a man feel pretty cheap when, after admiring some woman he meets in a company, his wife tells him that she wears a whole wig, and proves it.

Why is it that a woman will strive frantically for years to catch her husband in a lie and then weep till her nose and eyes are all puffy and red when she finally succeeds?

When a woman is extraordinarily careful to lock away her own letters aren't you filled with a sort of involuntary suspicion that she'd read other people's letters if she got a chance?

Why is it that, when a man sits still for ten minutes or so, probably thinking that he'd better get a haircut tomorrow, his wife makes up her mind that he is dreaming of some other woman?

When the regular day arrives for her to have what she calls "a good cry," why shouldn't she phone the information to her husband, so that he can stay down with the fellers and have a good laugh?

POLYGAMY IN UTAH.

Thousands of New Cases, a Salt Lake Gentle Newspaper Says.

A little while ago, remarks the Salt Lake Tribune, we printed a roster of men who are actually reputed, and doubtless correctly so, to have entered into new polygamous relations within recent years, very recent years, indeed, as compared with the date of the manifesto of 1890. The Deseret News, referring to that list, apparently accepted it as correct, and undertook to belittle "the polygamy scare" by saying that if these were all who had gone into polygamy since 1890 the list was a matter of no great concern.

This admission, however, on the part of the church organ serves not to limit the number of new cases of polygamy, but as a foundation upon which reasonably to assume that polygamy is alarmingly prevalent, for to every new polygamous case that comes to the notice of the nonmormons there are doubtless a hundred that the nonmormons never hear anything about. It is entirely safe, therefore, to say, as the Tribune has said heretofore, that the new cases of polygamy are numbered by the hundreds; perhaps it would be no great exaggeration to even say by the thousands.

At all events, it is a sure thing that there has been such a recrudescence of polygamy within recent years as could not have been dreamed of at any time between the outgiving of the manifesto and the conferring of statehood upon Utah.

Mayer Special Merit SCHOOL SHOES

"WEAR LIKE IRON"

They wear best where the wear is hardest. Made of selected leather specially tanned to resist exactly the kind of wear a healthy boy or girl will give them.

Two layers of leather are sewed in at the tip instead of one, to prevent the toes kicking out. The soles are of extreme toughness.

Mayer Special Merit School Shoes are made to fit a child's foot in a comfortable, natural way that will prevent foot trouble in later years, yet they are stylish and good looking. Only the genuine have the Mayer Trade Mark stamped on the sole.
