Sam Schneider of Crookston is in Valentine today. Read his sale advertisement on last page of this paper.

Judge Zarr expected to leave this afternoon for a visit with relatives in Chadron and at Sheridan, Wyoming.

If you want a good sale you should begin two or three weeks previous to the sale to advertise. We print good attractive and readable sale bills. Call on us.

Mrs. Frank Brayton and son Donald and Miss Anna Boltz returned from Chicago last week where they spent three weeks visiting.

Geo. W. Klingaman, the Wood Lake butcher was in Valentine Monday on business. Mr. Klingaman made our office a friendly call while in town.

Alvin Thayer of Harlan was down looking after a claim he had against Grant Warren who has been captured and is now held as a prisoner on a charge of mortgaging stock that he didn't possess.

Mrs. D. Q. Stead and two children went down to Blair Monday night to visit her mother who is ill. Mr. Stead will take care of the homestead alone for a few weeks but will probably find it quite lonesome.

You ought to take a county paper. Every man who lives in the county ought to read a county paper. Why not send a dollar for the DEMOCRAT? Don't put it off. Do it now. If you have been a subscriber and dropped out, let us renew our acquaintance. Send your name and a dollar.

J. S. Morrison, one of the engineers of the construction work down at the river in the early part of the season and who has recently been engaged upon work in South Dakota has returned to Valentine where he will probably spend the winter. He expects his wife to arrive next week.

Edward F. Eyl of Cody, Nebr., and Miss Mary Evelyn Green of Merriman, Nebr., were married in the Catholic church last Wednesday, Nov. 3. The nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Blaere in the St. Nicholas church at 8 a. m. Alvin Green and Miss Viola Green, a brother and sister of the bride, assisted as witnesses at the marriage ceremony. THE DEMOCRAT joins with many other friends in extending best wishes to this newly wedded couple and wish them joy and happiness.

Dry Creek Cracklings.

Louis Maylor was a Britt visitor Sunday.

D. A. Kellogg was a Valentine caller Saturday.

Joe Ryschon had the misfortune of being thrown from a horse Sunday injuring his foot slightly.

Miss Mary Grewe who teaches the Fairview school spent Sunday with her sister Miss Dora Grewe, the Dry Creek teacher.

Those receiving perfect attendance certificates, Edith and Clarence Kellogg, Oscar and Gussie Graeff, Ellis Sprat and Leona Janssen.

John Novak a former residence of Dry Creek returned from Iowa last week to visit the old home. He says corn is going as high as ninety bushel to the acre. If we had land here worth one hundred dollars per acre perhaps we would raise one hundred bushel per acre.

Friday closed the second month of school in district 56. Those neither absent nor tardy during the past month were, Edith Kellogg, Ellis Sprat, Oscar and Gussie Graeff and Leona Janssen. Cases of tardiness two. Enrollment seventeen. Those enrolled last month Oscar Graeff, William Brown, Frank Repchon and William Spratt.

The entertainment Saturday night was a complete success. More people entered the room that night than was ever known to in the history of Dry Creek. Supper was served to about one hundred. Miss Dora Grewe has asked us to thank the ladies of the district who were so kind as to help with the supper, also all who took part in the program.

Work on the cut off east of town is rapidly nearing completion and the piles are now being driven for the new steel bridge. Trains will probably be run over same by the first of the year.

On last Saturday a contract was entered into whereby C. J. Anderson sold his interests in the Diamond bar ranch to Chas. Haas, of the firm of Haas & Hord, consisting of 4450 acres of deeded land, leases on several school sections, all cattle and horses, hay tools, wagons, etc., and the hay on the ranch this year. While many will regret to see Mr. Anderson retire from this business, yet we are fortunate that the purchaser is Mr. Haas. He is probably the best known and is certainly the largest feeder buyer, together with his partner, that has ever come to this country. He has purchased several thousand head of cattle this season in the vicinity of Cody, Merriman and Irwin. The transfer of the ranch will be made about the first of the year, and we understand Mr. Anderson intends to move west, probably to California, for his health.—Cody Cow Boy.
