A Crime.

Some time ago Yank O'Bryan moved to town from his ranch on the reservation and bought the dwelling formerly owned by H. B. Forester. Mr. O'Bryan's health has been failing the past two years as he advances in age and he went down to Omaha the latter part of October to take special treatment for asthma and as he kept a team and cow he secured the services of Wiley Howard to do chores for him during his absence. About the 3rd or 4th of November or about a week after Mr. O'Bryan went to Omaha, Florence Young, the little ten year old niece of Mrs. O'Bryan who has been making her home with the O'Bryan's and going to school, was caught in the coal house and raped. Under threats of death the girl did not tell the story until she became dangerously ill. Drs. Lewis and Compton were called in and the child's mother was sent for and to them she told of how she had been thus brutally treated and accused Wiley Howard of the crime. Howard was discharged by Mrs. O'Bryan and she sent for the girl's father Geo. Young and for her husband fearing to do anything until they arrived as their lives had been threatened. Mr. Young arrived Sunday morning after riding horseback all night from his home north of Cody.

Upon hearing the girl's story he called upon Henry Graham the day marshal to place Wiley Howard under arrest and he was taken into the presence of the girl who claimed to identify him as the man who assaulted her and he was placed in jail to await a hearing but the critical condition of the child has kept her confined to her bed and the preliminary set for Wednesday had to be postponed until the improved condition of the child will permit her to be in attendance at court.

Mrs. O'Bryan claims to have seen Wiley Howard and another man hanging around their place several evenings after he was discharged and she feared that he was intending to carry out the threat referred to by the girl.

Wiley Howard denies being guilty of the offense and says that somebody is trying to put up a job on him. He is about 63 years old and has been around Valentine for nearly twelve years, working out on some ranch during the summer and stays in town during the winter. He was looked upon as being a harmless old fellow and never before did anyone any harm that we know of. Was supposed to be a trustworthy person and was trusted here and there to be with children. This serious charge reversing former appearances is a shock to the community.
